Ohio State

My Dearest Mr. President,

To put it mildly, I was honored to have been able to meet you. I am happy to say that you solidified my beliefs. Now defending President Richard Nixon is an easy job.

Naturally, people of all ages are interested in my visit. They are amazed that an 18 year old college student was invited by the President to the White House. I feel that I have been able to convince many people that Richard Nixon is a man who cares more about the good of America than himself. Contrary to "Newsweek", he is a warm, sincere, understanding man. He is a man that is following the right path.

I hope that my visit proved to be worthwhile for you. I hope that you learned something about the way Ohio State students think. I also hope that you learned a bit about the mood on campuses today. If possible, I would be pleased to keep you informed about your image among young students. I do hope to help you a bit!

After your re-election in 72, I will be a junior. I hope to be a junior with open eyes and I hope more insight. Possibly then I could come again. Then, I hope I could be a bit more valuable to you. Again, I would like to say thanks for giving me a chance to meet you.

Sincerely,

John R. Kasich
