U.S. TABLE TENNIS
OFFICIALS

Graham Steenhoven, 59, Detroit, Mich., has been president of the United States Table Tennis Association for the last four years, and was leader of the group that visited China. He has a long history in table tennis management, having been a vice president of the USTTA as far back as 1945. Mr. Steenhoven has chaired several of the Association's committees in the intervening years. He is also North American Vice President of the International Table Tennis Federation. When not thinking about table tennis, Mr. Steenhoven is a personnel supervisor with Chrysler. He was born in England, and is a U.S. citizen.

Rufford Harrison, 41, Wilmington, Del., is a former president of the USTTA, a former team captain, and co-author of the 1967 book, "Table Tennis." As chairman of the USTTA's International Committee he was the recipient of the Chinese invitation and deputy leader of the group in China. Mr. Harrison is a member of the Council of the International Table Tennis Federation and chairman of its Equipment Committee. He is a chemist with Du Pont. He spends his leisure time studying languages (most recently Chinese), ballroom dancing and playing wei-chi.

Jack Howard, 37, Seattle, Wash., captained the U.S. team on the tour of China. Still a top player (he is ranked in our top 10), Mr. Howard is now beginning to place more emphasis on coaching and other management aspects of the sport. He is a programmer with IBM.

Tim Boggan, 40, Merrick, N.Y., is a vice-president of the USTTA. He is still a player (ranked in the second 10), but uses much of his time at tournaments in his other capacity as editor and No. 1 reporter of the national magazine Table Tennis Topics. Mr. Boggan is an English professor at Long Island University. He is married, and has two young sons, both of whom play table tennis competitively.

John Read, 44, Chicago, Ill., led the U.S. team at the world championships in Munich, and has been captain against Canada eight times. A vice president of the USTTA, he has also been chairman of its Ranking and Selection Committees for several years. He has been active, first as a nationally ranked player, then as an official, since 1944. He is a supervisor with the Home Insurance Company.

U.S TABLE TENNIS TEAM
MEN, ALPHABETICAL ORDER

George Brathwaite, 34, came to us from Guyana and is now a U.S. citizen working for the United Nations Secretariat. Originally a defender, he recognized the value of the modern topspin game; his resulting attack lifted him to his 6th ranking and to a place on the team that went to Japan and China. An avid believer in physical fitness, George previously represented Guyana in field athletics. He also plays cricket. He is married and lives in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Bernard Bukiet, 52, came to New York City from Poland, via Germany, in 1952. He was naturalized in 1957, the year he first won the U.S. title. He went on to win it twice more, the last time at the age of 47. He's still going strong. Bernie is ranked 5th, and was runner-up in the 1971 U.S. Open Championships. He is probably the best player of his age the world has ever seen. Bernie likes eating, dancing and spectator sports but, in his words, "Table Tennis is my life."

Lim-ming Chui, 23, was born in Shensi, China, but spent most of his life in Hong Kong, where he was ranked in the top 10. He came to the U.S. in 1966, obtained a B.S. in electrical engineering at MIT, and now works in Boston in the computer field. His aggressive pen-hold game has resulted in a top-10 ranking. In addition to table tennis, Lim-ming is a long-distance swimmer and has high proficiency at bridge and Go (wei-chi).

Glenn Cowan, 20, Los Angeles, Calif., is another top-10 player, and has won the U.S. Open doubles title twice. He represented his country at world championships in Munich and Nagoya, and was with the group in China. His outward, easy-going manner gained him probably more publicity than anyone else on the team, both during the China tour and since.

Jack Howard, 37, Seattle, Wash., played for the United States in Munich, and captained the team that went to Japan and China. Jack has a powerful game, including a backhand loop, that has enabled him to retain a top-five ranking for the past five years. He is one of the best-known coaches throughout this country. Jack is a programmer with IBM.

Erwin Klein, 33, Los Angeles, Calif., won the world mixed doubles title in Tokyo in 1956, playing on the last U.S. team to beat China. He has taken the U.S. title four times, the Canadian Open twice, and is currently ranked 10th. Erwin is a designer of dental equipment.

Dal-joon Lee, 32, learned table tennis in Korea, where he won eight national titles and was runner-up in the Asian championships. He spent two years with the Harlem Globetrotters, visiting 58 countries. He is now a citizen, living in Cleveland, Ohio, with his wife and son. D-j has now won the U.S. title five times in succession, and has never lost in open competition to a U.S. player since coming here. He represented the United States in Munich and Nagoya.

Peter Pradit, 22, Miami Shores, Fla., came to us three years ago from Thailand where he was ranked third. He represented his country five times in the Asian Championships. Peter won the Australian singles and doubles in 1964, the Canadian doubles in 1970 and the U.S. doubles in 1971. He used to play soccer and basketball but, as his current top-five ranking suggests, he now concentrates on table tennis. He is a computer programmer with a Miami savings and loan association

Errol Resek, 30, came here from the Dominican Republic and is now a citizen. An all-round athlete, Errol played baseball and basketball in his homeland, but now concentrates on table tennis. He is ranked at No. 3, and is one of the steadiest players in the country. To relax, Errol also plays chess and bridge. He is married, lives in Jamaica, N.Y., and works in foreign exchange. Errol represented the U.S. in Japan and China.

Dell Sweeris, 25, is half of Grand Rapids' famed husband-and-wife duo. He has taken six U.S. doubles titles, and currently holds both the men's and the mixed. He is also the current Canadian Open singles champion. Dell played for the U.S. in Ljubljana, Stockholm and Munich, then led the junior team to England in 1971. His current ranking is 4th. Dell is a highly rated coach and owner of a table tennis club. In his non-playing life he is a CPA with a national accounting company.

U.S. TABLE TENNIS TEAM
WOMEN, ALPHABETICAL ORDER

Judy Bochenski, 16, Eugene, Ore., is our national junior champion. She reached the final of the Canadian Open this season, and must therefore be expecting a top-five women's ranking. She was a member of the U.S. team in China and was honored on her return when the Oregon state legislature established a Judy Bochenski day. Judy plays clarinet in her high school band.

Patty Martinez Cash, 20, is more than just a player; she has been a table tennis legend ever since, at the age of 13, she was 15-20 down in the fifth game of the U.S. Open final. She took the next seven points to become the youngest U.S. women's champion. Patty has repeated twice and has taken three Canadian singles titles. She represented the U.S. in the Munich world championships. Patty has a very cool temperament and a blocking game with unsurpassed touch and reflexes; her opponents find this a most disconcerting combination of assets. Patty is married and lives in National City, Calif.

Alice L. Green, 20, is an all-rounder who represented the U.S. in Munich. She is currently ranked among the top 10. Alice is studying history and anthropology at Columbia University. She enjoys water sports, walking, travel -- and cats.

Wendy Hicks, 19, Santa Barbara, Calif., holds the U.S. women's title and is our first-ranked player. She represented the U.S. in world championships in Munich and Nagoya. Wendy is both a student and a part-time secretary. She cooks, sews and plays golf.

(attendance not confirmed)

Pat Hildebrand was born in Barbados, W.I., where she captured the Caribbean and Central American titles. She emigrated to Canada, from where marriage brought her to Philadelphia. Pat's defensive game has given her a top-10 ranking in the U.S. She is the current Eastern U.S. champion. Her hobbies include cooking and coin collecting.

Sue Hildebrandt, 17, Warren, Mich., is the Midwest champion. She recently spent a month in Japan, where she was coached by former world champion Kurimoto. Sue represented the U.S. in the English Junior Open in 1971. She enjoys skiing and water sports.

Barbara Kaminsky, 29, Lanham, Md., won the Canadian singles championship in 1959, and has been winning U.S. and Canadian titles ever since. She is an excellent doubles player with her name on 13 national trophies. Barbara is married with two children. Her other pursuits are duckpin bowling and playing the piano.

Angelita Rosal is the youngest girl to face the Chinese visitors. She is 15, and lives in San Diego, Calif. An American citizen, she is half Filipino and half Sioux. She played for the U.S. in the English Junior Open in 1971. While collecting more than 200 honors she has had little time for her other interests, which include sewing, cooking and swimming. She plans to be an airline stewardess -- no doubt hoping for flights to China.

Olga Soltasz, 18, Orlando, Fla., is another top-10 player, and represented the U.S. in the last world championships in Japan. She returned to Japan shortly after for coaching by former world champion Ogimura. Olga was on the U.S. team in China. She plays several other ball sports, but lists her main hobby as eating. Olga was born in Budapest, Hungary, and came to the U.S. at the age of three; she is a U.S. citizen.

Connie Sweeris, 24, Grand Rapids, Mich., is half of one of the world's best husband-and-wife doubles teams. She currently holds all three U.S. titles and has a long history of victories in North America. She represented the U.S. in world championships in Sweden and Japan, and was on the team in China. She is a dental assistant. She and her highly-ranked husband Dell have a two-year-old daughter. In the few odd moments of spare time that table tennis leaves her, Connie makes all of her own clothes.
