December 10, 1970

Dear Walter:

Following our breakfast discussion a week ago Thursday, I came across some files left with me by an old political acquaintance -- Norman Knight.

He is in the throes of divesting himself of certain radio properties. I am passing them along for whatever interest they might have to you or others who could steer them into friendly hands.

I would be very interested when you are next here to follow up on certain aspects of our conversation on which I think you could give us some very helpful guidance.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

/jh

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 2, 1970

MEMORANDUM FOR LYN NOFZIGER

You may recall that I talked to you about a friend of mine who wants to dispose of several television stations. He was down a few weeks ago and left with me a lot of information about these stations, which I am enclosing. If you know anyone who is interested, who is a friend of ours, let's put them together with Norman Knight. I have no interest in this other than it would always be nice to have these kinds of stations in the hands of friends.

Knight is apparently desperate for cash and a hard deal could presumably be made.

Let me know if you have any interest in pursuing this further and if so, I will have Knight come in and see you.

Dear Chuck:

Our luncheon and the time before it and after were most enjoyable.

The communities involved will gain appreciably by a well-qualified purchaser of the stations that I mentioned to you and we will be happy to supply additional information if desired.

I am hoping that this time next year we will have consolidated our properties and that it will free up more of my time.

It was obvious during my visit that you are working much too hard and that too many people have found out how effectively you function. The country is fortunate that you made this choice but I do hope you will watch your health just as I am attempting to do to recover my own at this time.

I do hope to see you very soon again and will wait to hear from you regarding your possible October 12 or 13 visit.

You have a remarkably gifted associate in Joan Hall and I do hope the months ahead go smoothly for you.

With warmest regards,

Cordially,

NK:cem
