Station WBTV will video tape the Vice President's remarks from the rally and will play this back from 11:15 to 11:45 P. M. the same evening. This will also be carried by Asheville, N. C. at the delayed time.

Also, there is a possibility that through the request of the Honorable James F. Byrnes that the rally will be telecast in South Carolina in Charleston, Columbia, and Greenville. The question here is whether it can be worked out technically to feed from Charlotte, N. C. to this South Carolina network at 9:30 p. m., Monday, October 3.

T. V. Advance: Ev Hart

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4

1. Miscellaneous newsreels during New Jersey tour

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5.

1. Possible video taping of Mrs. Nixon at the NBC television studios for the TODAY program to be telecast Thursday morning, October 6. As of this date this has not been cleared by Mrs. Nixon.

2. Paid political telecast of the Vice President's remarks from Convention Hall in Philadelphia, to be carried over the following stations:

September 30, 1960

Mr. Lee Greenhouse
Doremus-Eshleman
1616 Walnut Street
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Dear Lee:

First, let me thank you for all your help in our joint effort. It has been a real pleasure working with you.

This will be the format of the half-hour paid political telecast from Convention Hall in Philadelphia Wednesday evening, October 5, 1960:

1. We will open up video-wise on Convention Hall and the crowd. Over this, audio will be from the local stations with the individual local political disclaimer. We will allow ten seconds for this.
2. Over the same video the announcer in Philadelphia will briefly set the scene and with "and now to the rostrum and the Honorable Milton G. Baker, Chairman of the Nixon for President Committee." We will allow thirty seconds for this.
3. Mr. Baker will then introduce the Vice President with this introduction only:

"It gives me great pleasure to introduce the next President of the United States, Vice President Richard M. Nixon."

We will allow ten seconds for this.

4. Vice President and Mrs. Nixon will then enter, and from entrance to close of remarks there will be a total of 27 minutes and 15 seconds.
5. At the close of the Vice President's remarks and voice over the ovation, the Philadelphia announcer should reset the scene something to the effect:

"You have just heard Vice President Richard M. Nixon speaking from Convention Hall in Philadelphia."

Video-wise from Philadelphia at this point there should be the Nixon-Lodge flip or talop, which we will supply and over which the Philadelphia announcer reads, "Vote for Nixon and Lodge. They understand what peace demands."

We will allow fifteen seconds for this.

6. Video-wise and audio-wise the local stations will then cut away for a period of one minute for mentioning the statewide candidates and the local political disclaimer.

As I understand it, the last one minute where we will be cutting away to the individual stations will take care of the request for inclusion and mention of the statewide candidates.

Unless otherwise notified, by you, the following stations will carry this telecast:

WFIL-TV - Philadelphia	WBRE-TV - Wilkes-Barre
KDKA-TV - Pittsburgh	WJAC-TV - Johnstown
WFBG-TV Altoona	WICU-TV - Erie
WGAL-TV Lancaster	WSWE-TV - Erie
WTPA-TV Harrisburg

Again, many thanks for your help.

Cordially,

George M. Rogers, Jr.
