THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 11, 1971

MRS. HALDEMAN:

Naome Nover, who previously wrote for the Denver Post and most recently for McClatchey Papers called to request an interview with you in your home. She said it would be a very personal interview involving your interests, hobbies, etc., and would entail about 1 to 1-1/2 hours of your time.

Recommendation: That you not see Mrs. Nover.

Reason: A delightful lady, but likes to chit chat a lot and sometimes doesn't get around to the interview properly and has to call back, etc., etc. Mr. Ziegler in the Press Office questioned whether it would be productive time spent.

 Schedule me to see
Miss Nover on at .

I won't do the interview
