In terms of how Nick feels about things, he is happy to have the polling information which you or your office supplied this morning. He is reevaluating the various schedules for the Cabinet Members and will adjust them in order to see that the proper weight is put where it is needed. It is his feeling that the Cabinet Officers are getting good press and that they are doing the job for the local candidates in terms of getting the television time which they otherwise would not be getting. In two States, Utah and Texas, they have said that they believe they have had enough top Administration people in and they are worried about a carpet -bagging gype issue. Nick is going back to those candidates and explain the advantage of having top Cabinet people in and the amount of television exposure it is helping the candidates to receive. I think this problem is symptomatic of the one we are finding with David, Tricia, and Mrs. Nixon in the sense that the candidates are worried about having too many of our people coming into their States. It is a point which has to be reasoned out with the various candidates and Nick obviously understands this and is working against the problem.

Attached you will find a memorandum for your signature to Nick asking for his final plan for the wrapup of this fall campaign period based on the new poll information. It is my opinion that from the limited information I have the operation is moving along and that generally people seem to be pleased.

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. CHAPIN

A number of odds and ends. First, get Ollie, and maybe the press people, looking for some better film of the kids in Ireland - both stills and movie footage. There should be some sensational pictures out of that, but nothing we've seen so far really amounts to much.

When the President is in California on election day, he wants to have Merritt in to do another portrait of him. He'll take some time on that day to do it.

In scheduling Florida, consider Fort Lauderdale and Palm Beach, and the west coast, doing some things where we haven't been. The President is not particularly interested in St. Petersburg, Tampa, or Orlando.

Will you check up on Tricia's scheduling and give me a report on why they knocked off Utah and Tennessee early this week. Was this screwed up? Is there a story out that she has canceled now? The family is all very much concerned about this.

Also, get them going fast on a Pat Nixon schedule - either here at the White House or on the road to keep her busy during the time the President is campaigning. She should not accompany him on any of the campaign activity, except the rally in California. She should end up there on the 30th, but nothing other than that.

For California we should probably go ahead and lock up the 30th, but only if Murphy and Reagan can be there.

The President suggests that when Pat Nixon is with him on a campaign thing, it might be better for her and the kids, if they are along, to sit in a guest of honor box, instead of sitting on the platform. They can then be introduced from their place in the audience, which is a little more appropriate when he's not running for office.

There is to be no meeting set up with the local press on the campaign stops - just an opportunity for a handshake. Don't get into a thing where he has to answer questions from them. He might do so, but ~~he~~ doesn't want to be locked into it.
