CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. DAVID N. PARKER
FROM: H. R. HALDEMAN
SUBJECT: Political Appearances by
Mrs. Nixon, Julie and Tricia

We should proceed with the idea of having Tricia and Julie, and Mrs. Nixon for very major events, go to political affairs around the country. The way to handle this is to always have a Cabinet Officer or other good speaker on the program. The presence of Tricia, Julie or Mrs. Nixon will hype the publicity to an enormous degree.

Julie has worked out a very good formula where she does a T. V. interview in each case of Mrs. Nixon and Tricia should follow suit. In Mrs. Nixon's case, the big receptions are probably also a good idea, particularly out in the hinterlands because they mean a great deal to people who are not in Washington.

In order for all of this to be successful, however, we need to move quickly in looking up the staff work in scheduling better events for Julie, Tricia and Mrs. Nixon about the country.

This is top priority and you should move on it immediately. Please give me a report of your progress by noon this Friday.
