Re: MELVIN A. CONANT, JR. (resume attached)

Melvin Conant is a logical candidate for the position of Assistant Secretary for European Affairs in the Department of State.

His experience as Political Advisor and Government Relations Counsellor for Europe and the Far East, Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, has been far-reaching. He knows the name of the game and the players as well. He is highly regarded in Europe and in this country.

He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and is also a member of the State Department Advisory Panel on European Affairs. He has been a professor at the National War College, and is also a member of the Institute for Strategic Studies in London. He has also published in the field.

Important here is that he has been closely associated with NATO affairs. Moreover, he personally knows many high-ranking European government officials.

Conant has been of great help in the foreign policy field during the campaign. I often called upon him for assistance.

He comes highly recommended by Bill Kintner of the University of Pennsylvania, an RN advisor of long standing.

I add my own strong recommendation. He would be a faithful and imaginative team-player in the Nixon Administration.

Melvin A. Conant, Jr.

16 Titus Lane
Cold Spring Harbor
New York
(Myrtle 2-7629)

1. Born: New York City, March 20, 1924, of American parents.
2. Educated: Harvard College (Magna Cum Laude in international law and diplomacy) 1949; Harvard University, M.A., Far Eastern studies (1951).
3. Married: Mary Brewster Paine Green, September 2, 1946.
4. Children: Ian James Conant (1947)
Alan Conant (1950)
Amy Conant (1956).
5. Experience:
 1. In 1951 began an extended tour of the Philippines, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Malaya, Thailand and Burma; Pakistan, India and Ceylon to analyze Communist penetration in certain groups. At the conclusion of the trip recommended counter-action and helped initiate it. Subsequent visits in the intervening years for other purposes have included Japan. Attended conferences on Far Eastern affairs beginning 1947 to the present.
 2. From 1951-1955 was Executive Director of the Pacific and Asian Affairs Council, Hawaii: Responsible for operations of office and for the briefing of businessmen with interests in Southeast Asia and Japan. Appointed by the Territorial Governor a founding member of the Board and Executive Committee of the International Cooperation Center -- forerunner of the present East-West Center for the training of Asians.

Advised elements of U.S. Air Force and U.S. Navy on political developments in Asia likely to affect operations and planning. Member of the National Security Forum, Air War College. Completed reports on Soviet diplomacy and tactics in Asia at the request of U.S. Air University (long-range planning section of the Air War College).

From 1953 to 1955 was a "go-between" for several Chinese banks and firms and leading "Western" banks and utilities in Hawaii. These wished to break down the racial lines drawn between races and for two years assisted in the sensitive discussions as a person with close friends in the racial communities involved.

Research Secretary of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce's Economic Development Committee and member of the Governor's Committee to work with the Stanford Research Institute on economic problems of the Territory.

3. Invited to join the Council on Foreign Relations (1955) as a Council member and on the executive staff responsible for the programs involving over one hundred private meetings held annually with foreign diplomats, journalists and politicians.

Responsible for organizing Council discussions on Security Systems in the Western Pacific and U.S. Strategic Bases Overseas and, as a consequence, was invited to the Weapons System Evaluation Group of the Department of Defense.

Later, was responsible for initiating two other Council series on Military Strategy and U.S. Policy and Political and Strategic Problems of Deterrence.

In 1959 began a study of the political and military effects of special weapons on U.S. allies in Europe and on the Asian perimeter. Subsequently visited some of these allied countries to appraise defense problems in the light of Soviet military capabilities. Lectures annually at the Royal Canadian Air Force College and various U.S. military colleges.

4. Invited to join the faculty of the National War College, 1960-1961, as Professor of International Security Affairs. Responsible for the research programs on national security, policy problems (methods of analysis, presentation of argument, etc.) participated in by each class member. Assisted in the analysis of current security issues. Lectured on U.S. Defense relations with Canada and on India and Pakistan (in the latter cases analyzing the internal political factors affecting foreign policy objectives.) Faculty member assisting in course of War College visit to West and East Europe (Warsaw and Belgrade).

5. (Summer and Fall 1961) Completed study for the Council on Foreign Relations. Subject: Strategic Defense of North America; a case study of the political effects in Canada of changing military requirements of special weapons. The study was published in the late Spring, 1962, as The Long Polar Watch.
6. Regional Political Advisor, East Africa, South, Southeast and East Asia, Esso Standard Eastern, New York (December 1961-1962); the Asian regional company of Jersey Standard.
7. Government Relations Counsellor, Europe, Far East, Standard Oil Company (N.J.), New York, 1963 - . Special responsibility for developing a worldwide system for collection and analysis of political information relevant to corporate operations and planning. Concentration since 1963 on defense-political aspects of Europe with regard to security of supply.
8. Appointed State Department Advisory Panel on European Affairs, December 1966.
9. Dr. Glenn A. Olds
Nixon-Agnew Headquarters
450 Park Avenue
New York, New York

Dear Mr. Olds:

Permit me to identify myself as the recently retired Dean of the University of Virginia Law School and a former President of the American Society of International Law. I have also served the government in a number of consulting and other capacities.

It is my understanding that John R. Stevenson of Sullivan & Cromwell is under consideration for a possible position of responsibility with the Department of State. My unsolicited opinion touching his ability and character may be summed up in four words. He is absolutely topflight.

I have known him for a number of years and have worked with him from time to time. I am also familiar with the reputation he enjoys both at the bar and in the academic community. I can assure you that his appointment would be very warmly received by all who have come within the circle of his influence and I would assume also, by all who know him by reputation. Indeed I can think of no one who better commands as much respect from both sides of our profession--a respect born of an awareness of his personal qualities, his intellectual capacities and his balanced views on the problems confronting the nation.

I am positive his appointment would be in the national interest and would reflect great credit on President-elect Nixon.

I have written in generalities only because I assume the details of his record are already available. If, however, I can supply any desired information please do not hesitate to command me. May I repeat that Jack is absolutely topflight and may I add that his wife is endowed with intelligence, beauty and charm. The President-elect could not do better.

Sincerely,

Hardy C. Dillard

Re: Robert Schaetzel

I have just spoken with Robert Schaetzel and he has told me that he would like to be returned as U.S. Ambassador for the European Communities.

This man has over fifteen years of experience in the European area and could probably serve the regime best there.

FREDERICK NOLTING

Home: 58 Avenue Foch
Paris 16, France

Business: Morgan Guaranty Trust Company
14, Place Vendome 75
Paris (1^{er}), France

Native of Richmond, Virginia - approximately 55 years old

Graduate of St. Christophers School in Richmond
The University of Virginia
Harvard University Graduate School - Master's Degree in History

Served in United States Navy during World War II with assignments mainly in the Mediterranean and European theatres

On the faculty of the University of Virginia from approximately 1947 to 1950

1950-1964 - United States Foreign Service Officer
1955 approximately to 1961 - attached to the U. S. NATO Mission in Paris in various top level capacities
1961-1963 - Ambassador to South Viet Nam
1963-1964 - Various assignments in the State Department in Washington, after which he resigned from the Foreign Service

1964 to date - Vice President of Morgan Guaranty Trust Company in charge of operations in western European countries.

II. Frederick Nolting

Mr. Nolting's record is an outstanding one, and while I have not corresponded with him since the election, I feel sure that he would consider an appointment to an appropriate position in the State Department under the new administration. He also is well known to Mr. Robertson in Richmond, and I am certain to Mr. Murphy. It is interesting that during the period of his service as Ambassador to South Viet Nam, the fortunes of that country and the United States were substantially better than they have been at any time since. He was an impartial but emphatic supporter of President Diem, because he realized that this man had the widest support of any politician in South Viet Nam, and the unhappy events since Diem's murder at the instigation of certain liberal groups in our State Department and CIA in 1963, have abundantly proven the soundness of his views.

Mr. Nolting is also well acquainted with European affairs through his years in various responsible positions with our NATO Mission in Paris and through his present executive assignment with the Morgan Guaranty Bank. He again is a scholarly but realistic advocate of a positive American policy with our own national interests as the most important determining factor.

III. Lewis F. Powell, Jr.

As a possibility for Attorney-General, Lewis Powell is an extremely able and practical man who has given very generously of his time and talents to public service, but who is also a leading corporate lawyer. It was he who was the principal architect of what has been called the financial coup of the 1960's when the comparatively small, little known Albemarle Paper Company of Richmond in 1962 took over the giant Ethyl Corporation that had been formerly owned by Standard Oil of New Jersey and General Motors. His eminence as a lawyer is seen in his Presidency of the American Bar Association and as a member of the present Virginia Constitutional Commission, Chairman of the Richmond City Charter Commission in 1948, and many other notable assignments.

Mr. Powell's name was brought up by George Champion, formerly Chairman of the Chase-Manhattan Bank, who discussed his availability with Archie Davis during the week of the election. I do not know whether Lewis Powell would accept appointment as Attorney-General, but if it were tendered and he were willing, he would fill this important position with distinction and with great benefit to our whole country.

Mr. Peter Flanigan
Office of the President-elect
450 Park Avenue
New York, New York 10022

Dear Peter,

Enclosed is a copy of the resume of Jerome Alan Cohen, Professor of Law at Harvard University.

As you will note, Mr. Cohen's record is outstanding. He is especially interested in the position as Ambassador to China, Consul-General in Hong Kong, Deputy Assistant for East Asian and Pacific Affairs, Legal Advisor at the Department of State or General Counsel of either the Defense Department or the Arms Control Agency.

ions

I have known Mr. Cohen for many years and have no hesitancy in recommending him for any one of these positions in the new Administration.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Jerry Ford

Hon. Robert D. Murphy
717 Fifth Avenue
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Murphy:

I want to bring to your attention my interest in serving in the new administration. Only on my return from a long trip to Australia, Philippines and Indonesia this week did I know of your service to the President-Elect. In your search for qualified personnel you may find my talents of use.

The resume attached has been sent earlier to John Mitchell, Peter Flannigan, Bryce Harlow and Harry Flemming, as well as to Mr. Nixon, by Congressman John T. Myers of Indiana.

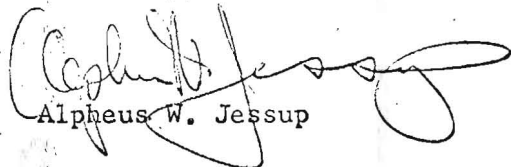

At a time when Asians are wondering whether interest in Asia will be maintained, utilization of some like myself with long involvement in Pacific affairs would seem to be helpful.

I will be on vacation in Nassau and Bradenton the next two weeks, but would of course hop back to New York or Washington should you wish. Congressman Myers' office, telephone 225-2889 at the Capitol, will know where to reach me.

From December 22 to 25, I will be in Washington (telephone: 362-3064). On the 26th and 27th, I will be in my New York office (telephone: 974-4254).

I appreciate whatever consideration you can give.

Sincerely,

Alpheus W. Jessup

The Honorable Bryce Harlow

Washington, D. C. 20006

Dear Bryce:

Congratulations on your appointment as Congressional Liaison for the White House. I know it will be a popular appointment here on the hill, and, like my colleagues, I look forward to working with you at this time of hope for the country.

I think most of us applaud the President-Elect's decision to shake up the State Department to some extent. Although I have a high opinion of the caliber of most of the Foreign Service, I do not see how the country could fail to benefit from a questioning of our foreign policy premises and the bringing in of new people with new ideas for solution of our long-standing problems.

While saying this, there are two Assistant Secretaries of State for whom I have a very high opinion and who I hope Mr. Nixon will retain in one important capacity or another. The first is obviously Bill Macomber. Bill has been an extremely popular Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations, and the members of both parties on the hill will applaud his retention in a key position. A Republican himself, he still retains great feeling for the memory of Dulles, and yet he has conducted himself in such a way in the past four years that at times I thought he was almost the only asset the State Department had in the eyes of Congress.

The second man who has impressed me favorably is Parker Hart, Assistant Secretary for Mid-Eastern Affairs, a career man who was formerly Ambassador to Turkey and, before that, Ambassador to Saudi Arabia. He impresses me as a solid citizen and a man with an excellent grasp of his area of competence. I do not know anything about his politics, but I suspect it is not an important element in his makeup, since he is best known as a middle Eastern specialist.

The Honorable Bryce Harlow

Re: John Bowling

Bowling is an excellent hard-nosed senior Career Foreign Service Officer now serving as Program Director of the Foreign Service Institute. He was a keen Nixon supporter and nearly came to grief because of his superior's knowledge of it.

His post before coming to the Foreign Service Institute was a key position in the U.S. Consulate in Karachi (I believe Consul General).

He combines a long range experience in American diplomacy and foreign policy with an unusual grasp of academic developments and literature in the social sciences, especially in the field of foreign affairs. He has an extremely wide acquaintance among the Diplomatic Community. He is very close to the top as far as rank is concerned. He might very well fit in the National Security Staff for the man following up outside research.
