MEMORANDUM

TO: JOHN EHRLICHMAN

FROM: HARRY DENT

RE: ADVISORY COMMISSION ON INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

This Commission is nationally recognized for its good, bipartisan work. See the attached study as an example. Then turn to the back page to see a list of its publications.

Bipartisan is really the word here. The Executive Director, Mr. Bill Colman, was selected by an executive committee of the Commission when it was first created in 1960. Mr. Colman has been the Director since that time and the selection of the staff since that date has been left entirely to him. It appears that selection of staff members has never had any political overtones to it. Mr. Colman says that at no time have the Republican or Democratic National Committees contacted him regarding positions. At present, the only person on the staff who has come from a background associated with a political figure is the Assistant Secretary, Mr. David Walker, who served as staff director of the Senate Committee on Intergovernmental Relations, which is chaired by Senator Muskie. Mr. Walker came to that post from Bowdoin College where he was a government professor. Walker is regarded as highly competent and it could be disastrous to even consider replacing him in that Senator Muskie is one of the Commission's best assets and supporters.

One matter that needs immediate attention is that of the chairman of the Commission who serves at the pleasure of the President. The current chairman is former Florida Governor Farris Bryant and although his term as a commissioner cannot be terminated, he can be replaced as chairman. Understand that former Governor Smiley of Idaho, a former member of the Commission, is one who desires to be the Commission's chairman.

The President has little leeway on appointments. He can appoint 3 private citizens and 3 persons from the Executive Branch. Since all appointees serve for 2-year terms, these appointments are available as follows:

Executive Branch - March 17, 1969; May 22, 1969; October 9, 1969
Private Citizens - March 17, 1969; March 17, 1969; October 9, 1969

Bo Callaway has been under consideration by John Mitchell for one private citizen appointment to help if he runs for Governor and to salve his feelings about not getting Secretary of the Army. Also, North Carolina Chairman Jim Holshouser, a State Legislator, has been mentioned as a possible State Legislator appointee. However, the President appoints 3 State Legislators from a list of 6 sent in by the Council of State Governments.

The Governors' Conference submits 8 names, and the President selects 4. The American Municipal Association and the U. S. Conference of Mayors send in 8, with 4 to be selected.

The National Association of County Officials sends in 6, with 3 to be selected.

There are certain guidelines on the appointments. All this is set forth in the attached law establishing the Commission.

Senator Muskie will be pushing legislation to establish a National Intergovernmental Affairs Council to coordinate federal aid programs and policy and to develop a closer liaison between the President and State and local officials. He makes a good case.

There is no question that much can be done PR-wise and effectively to improve government through this Commission. In view of RN's campaign statements on decentralization and promoting government efficiency, this Commission should play an even greater role.

The Commission is listed on page 157 of the plus book. Its money is appropriated annually by the Congress in the Treasury-Post Office-Executive Office Appropriations Bill. The current amount appropriated is $551,000.

Dear Harry:

I would appreciate very much if you could get me an invitation to the inaugural ceremony Mr. Nixon. I won't be able to go but I'd sure like to have it to place in my "political book".

I don't feel this is asking too much as I've had about 40 years of service, since Hoover's first term, at which time 14 of us were appointed to build a "White" Republican party in D.C. which entailed a heap of personal abuse & criticism thru the year, but we held on. Thanks.

As soon as I can get my hands on one, it will be forwarded to you.

(Re-January 20th Celebration In Washington)

Mr. Dent:

First let me congratulate you for a good job done in our state, second let me say a servant is worthy of his hire; I know you will do a good job in helping our beloved President, Richard Milhouse Nixon bridge the gap or gaps that divide us on many fronts of the world.

Just a reminder, on November 6, 1968 you said that you would see to me being in Washington for the Inagural ceremonies, I have tried to contact you through Mr. Kennedy, but to no avail, I am hoping with all that is within me, you have not forgotten about our conversation.

I hope to be able to keep abreast with the many changes that will confront us in 1970, when we will have to re-elect our Senator, or another G.O.P. I will be waiting to get the go ahead signal from you how to make plans in advance for the coming election in 1970.

I know it will be hard to get a place to live in Motels, or Hotels, I have word from the keeper of records at the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc. That a few of its members can find a place to stay for $7,50 Per day with 2 meals, I think that's very reasonable dont you ?

I would like to hear from you early in the week if possible, so I can make my travel plans a reality.

Respectfully,

F.G.C. DuBois

Rev. F. G. C. Dubois, Minister

Dear Reverend Dubois:

I appreciate your letter very much. Finding a place to stay in Washington during the Inaugural weekend will be worse than the difficult time Joseph had in trying to find a place for Mary. If you can find a place for $7.50 a day plus two meals, I suggest you come on up and I will arrange to get you a ticket to the swearing-in somehow. These tickets are very difficult to get, but I will certainly make every effort.

I would suggest, however, that I think you will find it virtually impossible to get a place to stay. The hotels are requiring that you register for four days, and this is costing between $100 and $200.

If you do decide to come, contact me either through Senator Thurmond's office, or at 395-3070.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely,

Presented through the Nationalities Division of the Republican State Executive Committee

Dear Mr. President:

The Federacion Nacional de Juristas Cubanos (National Federation of Cuban Jurists) has adopted the Resolutions set forth in the herewith enclosed certificate.

These Resolutions and the basis thereof in congratulating you, show the joy of the Cuban Bar and Bench for your election and for your pronouncements in favor of the Cuban liberation. They also show their gratitude to the Republican Party for the Platform which has included as an objective the upholding and defense of the forgotten Monroe Doctrine. The Resolutions further show the determination of the members of the Federation to fight for the liberation of Cuba and their intent to return to their Fatherland to work there for the reconstruction thereof and for the prompt restoration of a juristic democracy.

In behalf of the Federation, and carrying out the specific request thereof, we hereby invite you to accept these congratulations and declaration of intent as the most sincere expression of the feelings and good aims of the Cuban Bar, the Bench, and the law enforcers in exile.

With our highest esteem and consideration, we remain,

Respectfully yours,

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CUBAN LAWYERS, INC.

Humberto Quiñones del Sol
Vice-President

MOTION

To the National Federation of Cuban Jurists.

WHEREAS: The People of the United States of America, by exercising in exemplary manner the democratic function of periodically electing their governing officers has just proclaimed as their thirty seventh President the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, a professional of the Law, who has rendered to his country outstanding services, in war as well as in peace.

WHEREAS: The President elect and the Republican Party, which nominated him, in the statements and Platform thereof have offered substantial changes in the internal as well as in the international policy pursued by the previous administrations; such changes being: the strong defense of freedom and democracy for all the peoples; the reign of law and order in this country and specially the upholding and defense of the forgotten Monroe Doctrine which for more than a century have guaranteed the sovereignty and integrity of the American Nations against the intervention and conquering aspirations of extracontinental powers in this Hemisphere.

WHEREAS: The obscure treason of a group of bad cubans with the worst personal background who by prevailing themselves of the lack of political culture in a few of them and the envy, resentment, frustration, idiocy or indifference in others, in a perfect blend with pro-Communists infiltrated in the high official spheres and in the press of this country, plus the lack of knowledge of some of them and the refusal of some passionate others who did not wish to accept timely the fact of the existence of a Communist revolution which was clearly identifiable by its declared socio-economic aspirations and by the background of its chief leaders, a very distinct matter of the revolution with limited political aims, as wished by its partisans; all of the forgoing brought as a result the relinquishing to and the occupation of the territory of the most progressive of the Latin American Republics, the Republic of Jose Marti, by military armies of the Soviet Union and other Communist countries.

The roses of hatred, misery, accusation, and the execution wall flourish now in the soil of the Republic thenceforth in place of the white rose of fraternity and understanding which distinguished the people thereof; and for the sister republics of the Continent, those which in the past fertilized with their own soil the American Fraternity Tree in Havana, the betrayal and deceitful attack of the Communist subversion to conquer and enslave them is what now flourishes.

WHEREAS: The afront to the Sovereignty, the loss of freedom, the denial of all rights, the slave labor, the religious persecution, and the racial hatred, evils that were unknown in our cordial and understanding land, and the lack of security and vexation established by the insolent and armed rabble, there rushed toward these beaches, in an unprecedented exodus, the best of our people.

WHEREAS: Such people, notwithstanding the compensatory shelter received in this generous Country, has suffered, through the last ten years, because of the indifference to our real wishes to return and has suffered also for other innumerable reasons. Nevertheless we have worked in whatever place we have been able to, and we have exchanged, with dignity, the Bench for the most menial or humble work; but ever with a constructive preoccupation as it is shown by the organization and continuance of our National Federation of Cuban Jurists, which joins our most prominent Attorneys and Justices, our Judges, State and District Attorneys, Coroners, Notaries Public, Proctors, as well as the experienced and most worthy Helpers of the Judicial Branch and of the Electoral Tribunal and that of the Census. This, our Federation, is a pilot unit of specialized workmen and a source of values of incalculable importance in the reconstruction of Cuba. The solidarity of their members and their determination to defend the independence of the Judicial Branch as it is consecrated in our Constitution, speak and shall speak very highly to the future generations of the high, technical, moral and civic level attained by our juridic organizations.

WHEREAS: Notwithstanding the forgoing, as it seems inconvenient to the health of the Country and to the reconstruction thereof, that the Cuban man may return to his Country persisting obstinately in a group or classicistic ideal, we ought to declare, in the manner of a message to our countrymen in exile, our intent to return as people of Cuba, ready to work in anything in which we may be more useful to the New Republic, as we have done in exile, because where everything has been turned over and destroyed, patriotism makes it imperative for all the subjects of the Country to work in constructive and fruitful harmony and to repudiate demagoguery and sectarianism which in fact have caused us so much harm, as a means or an endeavor aimed to restore a juristic democracy.

WHEREAS: For good or bad, and we should trust, it would be for good, the fate of the Cuban people is intimately linked to the fate of the American people, by geographical, historical, economic, and political reasons, and this is an historical and geographic determinism which only the criminal dementia of the Castroism has absurdly tried to ignore.

WHEREAS: The constant exercise of the "domestic virtue" as it was recalled with exemplary vision by our countryman Don Manuel Marquez Sterling, is our only shield and moral strength for the equilibrium among so different forces.

WHEREAS: The new policy announced by this Country, the Leader of Democracy, gives grounds for hoping that the free Cubans may fight to recover our freedom and independence without the need to fight in different fronts at the same time as it has happened until now.

WHEREAS: Such hope suggests the advisability of congratulating the President Elect of the United States of America for having been elected and the Republican Party for its determination in including in the Platform, in the international side thereof, the upholding and defense of the Monroe Doctrine and the Caracas Declaration, and in the national side part of same, the announced intention to guarantee the reign of Law and Order, which is the basis for civilized living.

NOW THEREFORE: In my capacity as Vice-President of the Colegio Nacional de Abogados de Cuba (Cuban National Bar Association) and as Deputy thereof before the Federacion Nacional de Juristas Cubanos (National Federation of Cuban Jurists) I move that same adopt the following

RESOLUTIONS:

FIRST: To congratulate the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, illustrious Attorney, for his election as the thirty seventh President of the United States of America and for his reiterated pronouncements in favor of the liberation of Cuba, our country.

SECOND: To also congratulate the Republican Party for the Platform approved by the National Convention thereof held in this City of Miami last August which Platform having been sanctioned by the American People, has turned out in an express mandate to be fulfilled by its elected candidates. Among the objectives projecting out of said Platform are the upholding and defense of the forgotten Monroe Doctrine which with the Declaration of Caracas and related agreements entered under the Inter American Law, is the bulwark for the survival of the Nations of this Hemisphere so gravely threatened by the Communist subversion coming out from Cuba.

THIRD: To declare that the Federacion Nacional de Juristas Cubanos, in addition to acknowledging all the value and credit earned by the Platform sanctioned by the American People and by the repeated words uttered by its President Elect in favor of the Cuban Liberation, reaffirms its determination to fight against all hurdles, its intention to favor the greatest solidarity among members of exile, and its determination almost by unanimity of the members thereof to return to their Country to work, as people of Cuba, for the reconstruction of Cuba with no classicistic spirit as an endeavor aimed to the prompt restoration of a juristic democracy.

FOURTH: To express our gratitude to the American People for the hospitality shown and to congratulate them for the moral reserves they have revealed to possess in so difficult times for their Country and for Humanity.

Miami, November 30, 1968.

Dear Harry:

Would you please advise if General Mark Clark and Bobby Richardson can be taken care of with respect to Inaugural Invitation, Ball tickets, etc., without being charged against the South Carolina quota.

Bill Warner thought these gentlemen must be on Mr. Nixon's VIP list and should receive an invitation to everything.

Also, as a special request, I would like to have general invitations and Inaugural Ball invitations sent to the Vila-Reyes brothers and to their American manager, Mr. Ira Bostic, addresses as follows:

Mr. Fernando Vila Reyes

Mr. Juan Vila Reyes

Mr. Ira Bostic

You will remember that these are the gentlemen who invited you, Senator Thurmond, and Mr. Milliken to Spain and were tremendous financial supporters for Mr. Nixon through the Thurmond Speaks Committee.

Also attached is a copy of a letter from Mr. William Blum, asking for Inaugural Ball tickets for Mr. & Mrs. Herman P. Hamilton and their daughter and son-in-law in Chester, S. C. Do you see any possibility of taking care of this also.

Dear Mr. Ziegler:

A Symposium on World Trade will be held on Tuesday morning, January 28, during a National Meeting held by the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers, Inc. (ASHRAE), at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago. During this Meeting, we expect to have an attendance of approximately 3,000 Society members and guests. One of the featured Symposiums is that on World Trade.

Speakers at this Symposium will discuss U.S. leadership abroad in the air-conditioning, heating and refrigeration industry by continuing to achieve standards of excellence in product design, manufacturing, application, marketing, installation and service. Also on the agenda is the expanding of U.S. export sales and the problems involved in sustaining growth in order to help America's balance of payments.

It is our belief that the large group expected to attend this Symposium would be gratified to hear an address by a spokesman or advisor of President-Elect Nixon's Administration. These representatives of our industry would be interested in a statement on the Administration's international trade policy and the expanding needs overseas for U.S. manufactured equipment. We would also be interested in what the Administration plans to do about non-trade barriers such as discriminatory tariffs, turnover, import taxes imposed by foreign governments, dollar exchange restrictions, prohibited importation on entire categories of equipment to some countries and pioneer industry acts which place a special burden on U.S. imports. We feel that such an address by one of Mr. Nixon's staff or advisors would be of extreme benefit to our members and to our industry and would also give his Administration a platform of business leaders to which to expose its viewpoints.

We realize that this is a very hectic period for a new Administration and that your time is at a premium. However, we would be extremely pleased if you could arrange to have a speaker at this Meeting. I would be happy to discuss this matter further with you on the phone or to visit you in person at your convenience or to write directly to anyone you advise.

ASHRAE is a non-profit, engineering society of approximately 23,000 members from all parts of the United States and Canada. Many of our members are leaders in the air-conditioning and refrigeration industry; a sizable portion are educators and a sizable portion are employed by the Federal Government. I would appreciate your earliest action to this request.

Dear ~~Mrs. Higgins~~ Barbara

Our office received a telephone request from Mrs. John F. Ryan of Arlington, Virginia. Mrs. Ryan relates that she is a first cousin of Mrs. Nixon's and would like to acquire two tickets for the Inaugural Ball for two friends of the Nixon's. The tickets were requested for Colonel and Mrs. Percy Gibson of 1 Scott Circle, Apartment 103, Washington, D.C.

If Mrs. Ryan is Mrs. Nixon's close relative and the Gibson's are indeed close personal friends, we would most certainly want to assure their attendance. However, you most certainly realize our extremely low ticket allotment and the necessity of our refusing many of our friends as well as campaign officials.

If Mr. Nixon would like for us to handle this request, we will be most happy to do so. However, if there is an allotment for the President-elect's personal friends we would like to request that you place their names in this category.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Political Strategy Sessions

I recommend we use two political strategy sessions - the original group assembled at Key Biscayne, and the new group assembled at Camp David.

The Key Biscayne group has security and thus permits more candor. The Camp David group has less security with the Congressmen and Senators involved. This has been proved. Yet, it is important to include them in strategy talks.

The Key Biscayne group includes the President, the Vice President, Morton, Mitchell, Finch, Harlow, Ehrlichman, Haldeman and Dent.

The Camp David group includes the President, the Vice President, Mitchell, Morton, Rumsfeld, Harlow, Haldeman or Ehrlichman, Dent, Nofziger, Buchanan, Scott, Griffin, Tower, Ford, Arends and Wilson.

Our next session of each group should feature discussions on winning the U. S. Senate. I recommend that the President attend the Key Biscayne meeting. Then we can guide the Camp David group on a U.S. Senate session without the President and report back to the President on any better ideas or candidates. I will have full information available for both sessions.

If we can get Morton and Dr. Eisenhower to team together for the Senate and Governor seats in Maryland, we could have a winning combination. How about Walter Judd for National Chairman if we run Morton?

This is the type arrangement we must start planning now.

MEMORANDUM FOR

THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Meeting with Jerry Milbank
October 23, 1969
12:15 PM (15 minutes)

I. PURPOSE

To decide what the President's participation will be in national GOP fund-raising efforts for 1970.

II. BACKGROUND

- A. The President talked with Milbank on the phone recently, telling him to get together a finance plan and bring it in with Morton and Dent.
- B. The President will be meeting with Morton, Jim Allison, and Elly Peterson at noon for a 15-minute session on Elly's recent trip to Russia. At the conclusion of the Peterson meeting, she will leave and Dent will bring in Milbank for the finance meeting. Both meetings together will last one-half hour.
- C. Attached is Milbank's plan for trying to raise $11,100,000 in 1970. The President told the State Chairmen this week he had agreed with Milbank to make two fund-raising appearances in 1970.

- D. Milbank feels that there are contributor problems over the tax reform dissatisfaction. Recent accounting shows the National Committee is not as well off financially as had been expected, primarily because of late arriving and undiscovered campaign bills.

III. POINTS OF DISCUSSION

- A. Milbank will present to the President his plan for raising $11,100,000 in 1970. The plan requests three presidential appearances and shows how the Committee will be using other means to raise most of the funds. Here are the three proposals for presidential participation:

- 1) Presidential birthday ball at the Anderson House, Washington, D. C. on January 9. The idea is to invite 200 or more of the major contributors with no specific admission price for attendance. Those who are invited by members of the Executive Committee of the Finance Committee will be told the 1970 needs of our various committees. They will be told that the 1970 budget will be at least one-third of what it was for the full campaign year 1968, and that those attending will be expected to help. Actually, these people will be solicited for good contributions before coming to the ball. There will be no tickets as such. This will require at least an hour of attendance by the President and the First Lady. This is expected to bring in $1,000,000. If possible, this should be done.
- 2) The Senate-House Majority dinner will require at least one hour of the President's time on March 11 in Washington. There will be a similar dinner in Los Angeles featuring the Vice President. By all means this should be accepted. The President attended this dinner last spring. They are expecting a minimum of $2,000,000 from this one.

- 3) Bunny Lasker wants to put on a special dinner in October. This would be on a nationwide closed circuit TV hookup with many more $100 dinners. The New York dinner would benefit the National Committee in the amount of $1,000,000. The other dinners would benefit campaigns in the respective states. The President could assist the states through one appearance rather than through multiple personal appearances in the priority states.

RECOMMENDATION

Receive the proposals. Make no commitment, and Dent will be back in contact with Milbank as soon as possible.

- B. Milbank will present the President with a book of letters containing complaints from key contributors.

RECOMMENDATION

The book should be received and Milbank should be told that each will receive a letter from the White House clarifying and answering points they have made. Many of these are misconceptions and were written prior to changes that have been made.

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. DENT

It was clear to the President, in his meeting last week with the third-term Congressmen, that they generally hold the view that the recent Congressional election losses were due to the White House.

The President feels it's imperative that we continue to get the word out as clearly and quickly as possible as to what actually brought about the losses, and by all means the comparison between the President's standing and the candidate's in each case. This word has not gotten through the Congressmen as was made clear by the comments they made to the President.

This is important for them to understand as they consider their decisions on leadership of the Congressional Campaign Committee.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Chairman Morton is convinced that the President should invite Bob Wilson in for a private meeting, and that Wilson will agree to make the necessary changes at the Campaign Committee.

The Chairman says the feeling against the Committee operation is as strong now in the House among Republicans as they are at the White House. He and I have both been talking to some of the Congressmen and Don Brotzman is getting a group together with me later this week for this purpose. The evidence to show that the Massachusetts outcome was not a White House loss will be presented to this group also.

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. DENT

The President would like to consider a slightly higher degree of participation in the Holton and Cahill campaigns than is presently scheduled.

What he has in mind is a brief television tape for each of them that he would do for them to play either on TV or at meetings, or both.

Along the same lines, he felt that it would be a good idea to do one for George Murphy.

He would like you to check this out and give us a recommendation. As you may know, he made a tape for Hiram Fong, which was very well received, and he feels this device could be used on an experimental basis in these three instances as a possible test for future expanded use as we get into the '70 campaign.

Will you please, therefore, give us a recommendation by the end of the week. This is just for his consideration - not a commitment.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

In regard to your interest in increasing our participation in the Holton and Cahill campaigns, almost everything possible is now being done except for a Presidential visit which both strongly request.

We are likely to win with Cahill and lose with Holton. The President could not go into one state and make a political appearance without doing so in the other. Thus, it is probably best to limit participation to brief TV tapes, as suggested by the President.

Julle and David are making two appearances on one day in New Jersey. They and the First Lady have also been requested for Virginia, as has Tricia. I need to know if any members of the First Family will be available to go into Virginia. We have some events, such as the Shrine football game, which could be non-political.

The question of whether the President makes a personal visit turns on the question of whether there should be any appearance of political campaign action this year. Morton thinks not. I agree, but realize that participation in Governor's races will have little effect on Congressional relations. Both candidates are expecting personal visits.

Senator Murphy would be interested in TV tapes, also. This would be a good experiment.

FOR THE PRESIDENT

Chairman Morton, John Ehrlichman and I believe much good was done with the recent political discussion we had with the Executive Committee of the Republican Governors Association. No matter how much any of the rest of us may contact the Republican Governors, there is no substitute for a Presidential discussion. Thus, we propose that we take advantage of the assemblage of Republican Governors at the astronauts' dinner in Los Angeles on August 13 to have the President meet with the Governors for such a discussion not to exceed one to two hours.

This could be done one of two ways. The Chairman could have a reception for the Republican Governors and the President could attend. Mrs. Nixon could talk to the wives while the President talks to the Governors. This would be strictly private. As an alternative, we could have the Republican Governors whisked from Los Angeles to San Clemente for such a meeting prior to the astronauts' dinner.

We realize the big objection would be any possible partisan overtones to the dinner. This is why it might be better to have the Governors transported by helicopter to San Clemente.

There is also the idea that the Vice President, the Cabinet, and the Republican Governors might meet in the hotel following the dinner that evening. This would be good, but it would be much better for the President to have an exchange of views with these Republican Governors.

RE: Cahill Visit

Congressman Cahill and his State Chairman, Nelson Gross, will be in to discuss the Governor's race in New Jersey.

Gross should be commended for what he did at the convention, the general election, and to put Cahill across in the primary. He is one of our best men.

Cahill should be encouraged to put full authority in Gross. He is listening to others now, and this is one of his problems.

Cahill needs a boost because of the accident involving his daughter, Patricia, age 16, one of eight children. She has been unconscious since June 27.

We might want to discuss a successor for Cahill's congressional seat. Dick Allen has been interested but has received little encouragement.

I got a note from the President the other day suggesting that the National Committee undertake an effort to guide campaign managers in the future on the need of maintaining a candidate at peak fighting trim. He said Cahill and Holton both seemed to be working too hard. He said they looked extremely run down, tired and without much steam.

Would you give me some ideas on what we can do about this so that I can memo the President back that we are in accord with his wishes.

You may recall that during the last campaign he slowed down some and relaxed more and came through better.

September 30, 1969

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. DENT

As the result of the Saturday session, the President has the strong feeling that the Political Group is one which should get back to a regular fixed weekly meeting - not always with the President; in fact, usually without the President. He strongly feels that Morton should preside at these meetings, even though the Vice President ranks him, and that this can be justified on the basis that because it's purely political the Chairman should preside. He also feels that you should take the responsibility for assembling this group and staffing the meetings. He will want a report on each meeting after it's held; but he's concerned that not enough overall attention is being given to the purely political matters, and that the only way this will be done is through the use of regular weekly meetings.

Will you please, therefore, go ahead and set this up unless you want to make a contrary recommendation. If the latter is the case, the President should be so advised.

With regard to your memo on setting up weekly political meetings in accord with the President's suggestion, I am to meet with Rogers Morton Monday morning to discuss the Congressional Campaign Committee problem, and will also organize weekly political sessions at that time.

As you know, Morton has been out of town, and he has concluded that the best time for us to handle both of these matters would be Monday morning.

I will take the responsibility for assembling the group and staffing the meeting and Chairman Morton will preside.

The Vice President has been having meetings similar to this, on an irregular basis, with a luncheon in his office in the White House. I think we can use this same type program and include only those scheduled for the meeting at Camp David.

The President thinks it would be a good idea in these special congressional elections to have a number of National Committee employees participate in the election on election day in order to help get out the vote. He specifically suggested this for the Rumsfeld seat. Of course, we might consider this for New Jersey and Virginia. He wants to let these people know we do dare, and show it in a big way.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

The fund-raising dinner tonight is turning out better than had been expected. There is approximately $1.8 million in hand now. Originally they had expected more than $2 million, but for awhile they were hoping just to do better than $1 million. Thus, the fund-raising people feel much better now. Press reports will say "over $2 million" and it will be near that.

A telegram over the Vice President's name drew in considerable money previously denied us.

In passing out any bouquets, it might be noted that Lee Nunn has been the prime mover in this, as he has been in previous big successful dinners. He is the executive director of both the National Finance Committee and the Senatorial Campaign Committee.

... Nixon's programs.

Believe me, I'm one Congressman who has seen it happen. Literally dozens of the President's important proposals are gathering dust in Congressional Committees, all of which are headed by Democrats.

Even the important appropriations bills which provide the funds to make Government function are delayed by the "foot draggers."

That's not all our problems either - all of us are facing a tough election next year, when every Congressional seat is up for grabs. If the Democrats grab more of our Republican seats, the President and the Country are in for real trouble.

Frankly, tradition is against us. Did you know that the party in the White House has lost every off-year election since 1900, except for one? We are fighting a powerful trend in political history. Here at campaign headquarters, we are working to reverse this trend. That's why we need your help.

Next year's campaign is vital because the American people will read the results as a vote of confidence -- or no-confidence -- in what we are trying to do to correct the mess of the past eight years. We must give the President a Republican Congress, a Congress that will work with him.

I know how much you've helped us before, but it's people like you we must count on. Will you make your gift of $25 to the Republican Congressional Campaign early this time? $25 now is worth $100 late in the campaign.

In return for your help, I've asked my staff to see that you get a copy of the Republican Congressional NEWSLETTER every week, all next year. In addition, we will send you our beautiful 1970 Republican Heritage Calendar. It's printed in rich color and features more than 20 pictures of the President and other leading Republicans, quotations by these men
