'69 Europe, II (no date)

Welcoming ceremony for President in France: huge French flag, President reviews troops with Pompidou, great walking shot of soldiers standing at attention and following President and group including Kissinger into building. Motorcade leaves airport and travels through Paris. President enters unknown building, Ehrlichman walks by and smiles. Inside, pan around guest quarters, including chandelier, bathroom, Chanel soap, artwork on walls. Motorcade travels through Paris down the Champs Elysees and stops at the Arc de Triomphe. President talks to French veterans and crowd, wreath on ground, band plays. Quick shot of staffer giving a peace sign to camera man, or maybe just indicating the number 2. Nice crowd footage as people try to get close to President, nice shots of President in crowd. Gendarmes run down the street. Ziegler on steps. Motorcade, nice shots of people with signs lining streets. President and group including Ehrlichman visiting Versailles, troops march in formation, gardens of Versailles, staffers admiring art and architecture. President and Charles de Gaulle come outside and pose for a photo op. Shots of a French market: birds in cages, Ehrlichman wearing hat, zooming in and out of paintings. Departure ceremony from France, airport. President waves from airplane doorway. De Gaulle and others on red carpet outside Air Force One. Washed out aerial footage. Marine One (helicopter) lands in St. Peter's Square at the Vatican. Haldeman and Ziegler smile at camera, look busy. Nice motorcade footage. President is welcomed by Cardinals: lots of shaking hands, people smiling at camera. Haldeman and Rose Mary Woods, Ehrlichman. The Pope is filmed sideways and upside down. Departure ceremony at night: President shakes hands, reviews troops, helicopter.
