MEMORANDUM FOR: THE HONORABLE JOHN N. MITCHELL
THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

FROM: H. R. HALDEMAN

Tom Evans at the RNC has offered to take charge of the Campaign Management Training project originally suggested by Chotiner. You probably have this project on track already, but for the record we have no objection.

Rose Woods advises that Jack Mills has offered time and fund raising help.

She reports that he was with the House Congressional Committee and raised a "substantial sum in 1968 -- confidential".

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. COLSON
FROM: H. R. HALDEMAN
SUBJECT: List of Vietnam Veterans

In answer to your question on the attached, yes, we should do more.

We are now working through the VFW and Legion organizations, but why not use these lists for something from the RNC. I agree that we shouldn't cut into the recruiting of the VFW and the Legion, and that a Presidential letter is probably not warranted, but with all the "Veterans for Peace" groups around, why not organize some to support us? The Veterans organizations are good but you should look into this situation a little further to see if there are other ways to reach these people -- a little more directly.

Please put somebody on this and let's try to generate some ideas and then come up with a plan. Let me know where we stand by March 15.
