Didn't I write a letter to Pettit the other day thanking him for the candy?

If so, just file these papers -- I have no intention of giving him my dress size or that of the First Lady so that letter can just go ~~xxxxxx~~ unanswered.

(If we didn't thank for the candy then let's get a brief note out on that -- tks.)

MEMORANDUM

TO: David Parker

FROM: Rose Mary Woods

RE: Father Peyton

I think it would be a good idea if a letter of some sort was written to him saying how much the President would enjoy seeing him but these next few months are going to be so crowded that it will be impossible to schedule personal appointments. Something along that line because this man talks with a lot of people and I just think it would be good to let him think you are still hoping to work it out some time later.
