Dear Rose Mary:

The attached copy of a letter I have sent Jerry Milbank is self-explanatory. While he was here last week and we were planning for the big Republican dinner on November ninth, we all agreed that Governor Chafee could knock off Pell for the Senate in Rhode Island. You know what we think about Governor Nunn in Kentucky. In my opinion the President could be helped tremendously if these two would run for the Senate.

If DeSimone would come back and run for Governor in Rhode Island and Chafee for the Senate, I don't discount that the President could take Rhode Island. They have machine voting there and many of the lower-income Italian families know how to pull only one lever. They would vote for DeSimone and automatically for Chafee and the President.

I trust this note finds everything well with you and,

With warm best wishes,

C. Robert Yeager
