SCHLAG, BARBARA

Dear Congressman:

Many thanks for your recent note endorsing the invitation from the Young Republicans of King County.

Unfortunately, ^{WASHINGTON} the time we spend in Seattle will be extremely tight and, as much as I would like to speak to this group, I'm afraid it won't be possible during this trip.

Best personal regards.

Yours sincerely,

John D. Ehrlichman
Assistant to the President

Attention: Mr. Tod Hulin

Dear John:

I understand that Barbara Schlag, of the Young Republicans of King County, has invited you to be the featured speaker at their luncheon either March 3rd or 5th in Seattle.

As you know, the Young Republicans are a hard working campaign team, and made a substantial contribution to the last election success. They have traditionally been a training ground for future Republican leaders, and deserve any consideration you can give their request.

I know you are heavily committed, but wanted to put in a little extra pitch for the YR's.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Joel Pritchard
Member of Congress

Dear Mr. Heppenstall:

John Ehrlichman has asked me to reply to your letter of February first inviting him to address the Snohomish County Republican Lincoln Day dinner on March 17.

Mr. Ehrlichman appreciates your thoughtfulness in extending this cordial invitation; however, previous schedule commitments preclude his being able to be your speaker for this event.

Best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Tod R. Hullin

Dear Mr. Ehrlichman:

On behalf of the Snohomish County Republican Central Committee, "Greetings !" Sounds like a draft notice but I understand that is all over with. However, you might consider this a draft notice as you read on. In fact we are issuing a single draft call of sorts with only one number and you are it !

On March 17th of this year the Snohomish County Republicans are having their Lincoln Day Dinner. The affair is scheduled for 8 p.m. to be preceded by a no-host cocktail hour commencing at 7 p.m. All of this will take place at the South Everett Holiday Inn. The event is firm, the date is tentative. We are hinging everything on your answer. Needless to say, we would like to have you as our keynote speaker.

As you are aware, Snohomish County and the City of Everett is "Scoop" Jackson country. Yet, there are Republicans out there in the tules. We've managed to elect some to the state legislature this past election year but have been rather unsuccessful at the county and national level. Money, among other things, is a prime factor. That is what this dinner is all about. Two things have prompted us to contact in respect to keynoting the dinner. Firstly, your position on the President's staff and outstanding contributions to the nation's economic comeback. Secondly, and frankly, it is rumored that you are a very possible candidate for U. S. Senator in the coming elections. That excites quite a few of us even more.

Your name, experience and address to the dinner would help us to draw a good crowd and make money and would be great exposure for you. Also, this being my first time as chairman of an affair like this, I am unaware of the responsibilities, i.e.; financial responsibilities of the hosting group towards the guest speaker. In fact, no one on the Central Committee does. All amateurs, I guess. In your affirmative answer to this letter maybe you will enlighten me as to how or what we should reimburse you for.

Thank you for your time inconsidering this request, Mr. Ehrlichman. We are looking forward to your affirmative answer. Again, may I note that the date is flexible to the point that we will build the dinner around the first date you are available. Within a reasonable time, of course.

Tanks again. Hoping this letter has found you in the best of health, I am,

Grant E. Heppenstall

Dear Mr. Davis:

Thank you for your letter of February 8 inviting me to be the guest speaker for the Snohomish County Republican Central Committee Lincoln Day Banquet.

While I do plan to be in Washington early in March, my schedule for that time, unfortunately, is completely filled. I very much appreciate your invitation to join you and only regret that I will not be able to accept.

Cordially,

John D. Ehrlichman
Assistant to the President

Dear Miss Boyd:

You are very nice to drop me a note after the inauguration. I am very sorry to hear about Miss Jackson, whom I very much liked and admired.

MARGARET

Notes of friendship like yours brighten the day around here. Thanks again.

Yours sincerely,

John D. Ehrlichman
Assistant to the President
