Much love from

(and Julie!)

MR. PRESIDENT:

Sir: There is not much I can do for you for your birthday.
You already have most everything you need.

It is very plain to me tho' that if things continue as they have you'll be needing more china, glasses, etc.

For that reason, I checked the "old neighbor's" house and got back the enclosed. At least you won't have to get up some morning and drink your coffee out of a paper cup.

P.S. I also bought you a vacuum cleaner and fumigator.
Those I sent on to Key Biscayne so that on the next visit to "old neighbor's" house King won't have to sleep on those dirty couches.

Manolo Sanchez

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Manolo Sanchez". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned to the right of the typed name.

MR. PRESIDENT:

Older men are harder to buy for. By the time one reaches 60 (I am told) he has acquired everything practical and appropriate that fits his position in life.

To overcome this obstacle, I recognized that I'd have to spare no expense to find something practical, useful, attractive, symbolic and fitting your position in life.

After weeks of searching I found just the gift that fitted these requirements. Wear it with pride and you'll always remember this auspicious celebration.
