JOHN REAGAN McCRARY

October 27, 1971

Dear Tiger:

Certainly you have heard about the attached series of articles on Bebe; perhaps you have not seen the whole series, in the form that is being very widely circulated now by Newsday. Please note your name in the middle of it all.

I hope several questions have been asked and satisfactorily answered for your Boss by now:

- 1. At what point did somebody know the series was in preparation?*
- 2. What efforts were made to evaluate the impact of the articles, and their intent?*
- 3. What written measures were presented for discussion and decision on tactics for dilution, insulation, or reply and rebuttal?*
- 4. Did anybody ever, early or late, call up Otis Chandler to ask, "what the hell goes on with your goons on Newsday?"*
- 5. How closely did the G-2 conform to the final articles?*
- 6. Are any related "time-bombs" still ticking?*

Those were the questions I once put to Jim Hagerty when I warned him in Denver that the stuff was about to break on your Boss' special fund in 1952.

Those were the questions I put to Jim Hagerty again when I warned him about Sherman Adams-Goldfine story coming up.

In both cases, Hagerty shrugged off the warnings -- until after they exploded.

In war and politics, G-3 never has a chance without G-2.

How would you like to play Mata Hari? I bet you the firing squad would wind up in a waltz if you ever got caught!

Stay well, and never lose your laughter,
