Sue Taurog to rmw

"Taft Schreiber should stay in the finance field. He doesn't know these people and he assigns a young man who does not know how to talk with them.

"No money was left out here - all the money that was raised in the industry was sent back to the Committee.

"I know we need some new people but they seem to want to avoid all the others - we can't turn our backs on the people who helped before because they are more powerful in many ways and also we can't make it look like we don't want them!"

MR. PRESIDENT:

Maury Stans talked with me last night about an invitation which Charlie Thomas had extended for you to pick up your "ten year old" commitment to play golf with him at Irvine Country Club when you became President.

Maury, needless to say, thinks this should be done as he says Charlie Thomas really worked terribly hard during the last campaign on the money-raising end of things.

I asked — and he said NO in quite clearly firm terms.
