MEMORANDUM FOR BOB HALDEMAN

FROM THE PRESIDENT

On further reflection I think your idea of having Tricia and Julie, and for very major events Pat, go to political affairs around the country is an excellent one.

What you should do is to always have a Cabinet officer or other good speaker on the program. The presence of Tricia, Julie or Pat there will simply hypo the publicity in an enormous degree. Julie has worked out a very good formula where she does a TV interview in each case, but I am sure Pat and Tricia will follow suit -- Tricia, of course, a little more quickly than Pat because Pat doesn't like interviews. In Pat's case the big receptions are probably a good idea in the country because they really mean a great deal to people who are not in Washington.

I again urge, however, the necessity for beefing up the staff work in getting better schedule events for Julie, Tricia and Pat in the country.

I consider this top priority.
