MEMORANDUM

TO: H. R. Haldeman
FROM: S. B. Bull
SUBJECT: Meeting resume: Mr. Stuart Ludwig
10:00 A.M., 18 November 1968, Pierre Hotel

SUMMARY

At the request of Martin Anderson and Larry Higby, I met with Mr. Stuart Ludwig, employed by "Creative Type," a designing firm in New York City. Mr. Ludwig proposed that a post be established that would serve as a liaison between the Executive branch and youth groups. In addition to representing the views of youth, this agency or individual would communicate with them to explain the rationale underlying legislative acts and executive decisions.

OPINION

Such a post is unnecessary and inadvisable. The creation of a special "youth agency" would result in youth being treated as another minority. Mr. Nixon is theoretically the President of all people, and, as such, does not require a special counselor and intermediary on youth affairs. (The activities of such groups as SDS are not considered in the general youth category). Further, such appointment might be interpreted as "tokenism" and be self-defeating, appearing as an effort to assuage the feelings of isolated dissident youth groups.

Finally, any effectiveness of such an appointment would be totally dependent upon the establishment of the appointee's personal image and might result in the unintentional establishment of a "surrogate Presidency" for a youth society.

RECOMMENDATION

No action be taken.

Dear Stu:

Thank you very much for taking the time to come up to the Pierre Hotel and share your ideas with us. Your thoughts on the necessity for achieving a true unity in the country are valid and well-taken. Your specific proposal for the establishment of a post or agency that would represent the views of youth groups and act as a representative to and for them will be taken under consideration. Although your proposal may not be implemented exactly as presented, please be assured that your thoughts are truly being evaluated and discussed.

Yours truly,

Stephen B. Bull
