

NIXON PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY AND MUSEUM

Tape Subject Log

(rev. Apr.-08)

Conversation No.157-4 (cont'd)

- 1972 election
- 1972 campaign
 - McGovern
- Second term
- Economy
- The President's possible TV speech
 - Effect
 - Compared to [Kissinger's possible statement]
 - North Vietnamese intractability
 - Settlement agreement
 - Timing
- Possible breakdown
 - Kissinger's press and media relations
 - “Peace is at hand”
 - Settlement agreement
 - Settlement agreement
 - Public opinion
 - Ziegler's view
 - Daniel Yankelovich's view
- Settlement agreement
 - The President's November 2, 1972 speech, “Look to the Future”
 - The President's confidence
 - 1972 election
 - Press relations
 - Kissinger
 - Relations with the President
 - October 8, 1972 agreement
 - Authority
 - Credibility
 - The President's speech, “Look to the Future”
 - “Peace is at hand”
 - Tone
- Possible breakdown
 - The President's possible TV speech
 - October 8, 1972 agreement
 - South Vietnam's rejection
 - Consultation
 - Kissinger's trip to Paris
 - North Vietnam's view
 - Twelve changes

NIXON PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY AND MUSEUM

Tape Subject Log

(rev. Apr.-08)

Conversation No.157-4 (cont'd)

- Labor negotiations
- Timing
 - Kissinger's return from Paris
 - Kissinger's possible statement
- North Vietnam's reaction
 - US public opinion
- North Vietnam's willingness to settle
 - US bombing
 - Incentive
 - Congressional action
 - Cut off of aid
 - 1972 election
 - Status of war
 - US presence in South Vietnam
 - Casualties
 - Air war
 - Draft
- Press relations
 - Kissinger
 - Possible leak
 - Saigon, Washington, DC
- POWs
 - Christmas
- 1972 elections
- Twelve changes
- Process
 - Kissinger's cables
 - Tone
 - Colson's view
 - Labor negotiations
 - North Vietnam's April 1972 offensive
 - US reaction
- Absence of US statement
 - US bombing
- Kissinger's second cable
 - Haldeman's reading
 - Colson's view
 - Logic
 - Emotion
 - The President's role