R: Set for the 6:30 meeting. I have just talked to White House security... He thinks there may be some security risk having the Chiefs of Mission meeting and bringing together all the Ambassadors...

K: Tell the White House, let's just relax about that.

R: When I went to Tehran our own security people were raising hell. because as you know went off fine. I think we are making a great mistake if we went for that sort of thing.

K: Of course, I may be kept here by events if things get worse.

R: Still having WSAG meeting at 6:30.

K: Unless you want to come in at 5:30 and I'll tell you what the strategy is.

R: Fine.
