

New Professional Development Webinar Series on the Vietnam War

Dear Educators,

Join the National Archives and Presidential Libraries for a free, two-part webinar series examining U.S. involvement in Vietnam through the lens of government policy. Each webinar will connect educators with primary documents and online resources for teaching the Vietnam War in the classroom.

Register today for one or both webinars in the series.

Registered participants will receive a link via email to join the webinar the week of each program.

Remembering Vietnam: The Road to War

Wednesday, November 1, 2017, 7-8 p.m. ET (4-5 p.m. PST)

Join the National Archives, Harry S. Truman Presidential Library and Museum, Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library, Museum and Boyhood Home, and John F. Kennedy Presidential Library and Museum for this special webinar. Explore the Vietnam policy of the United States government through documents from the Truman, Eisenhower, and Kennedy administrations. Practice primary source analysis techniques and learn about resources for bringing Vietnam War documents into your classroom from the National Archives.

Remembering Vietnam: The Road Through War

Wednesday, November 8, 2017, 7-8 p.m. ET (4-5 p.m. PST)

Join the Center for Legislative Archives, the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library and Museum, Richard Nixon Presidential Library and Museum, and Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library and Museum for this special webinar. Explore the Vietnam policy of the United States government through documents from the Johnson, Nixon, and Ford administrations and the United States Congress. Practice primary source analysis techniques and learn about resources for bringing Vietnam War documents into your classroom from the National Archives.