"Heroes and Heroin" and drug abuse press conference (Filmed by ABC crew; copyright restrictions might apply) (6/17/1971, San Clemente, California)

Reel 1: June 16 or 17, 1971, "Heroes and Heroin," President Nixon at San Clement, Work Print, with sound, given to the White House by ABC. Outdoor roundtable discussion with Nixon, Jerome Jaffe Ehrlichman, and others (possibly Bud Krogh). Jaffe speaks about a test program for detecting and treating heroin addiction of Vietnam Veterans. Picture and sound do not sync properly in work prints; picture is faded and over-exposed.

Reel 2: June 17, 1971, "A New Presidential Initiative to Prevent Drug Addition and Drug Abuse," work print, with sound. Press conference with President Nixon, Jerome Jaffe and others at podium (silent); Nixon explains objectives of drug treatment program; John Ehrlichman gives comments; Egil Krogh gives more details; Dr. Jaffe speaks; Krogh and then Jaffee explain plans for treating Vietnam servicemen

Participants: President Nixon, Egil Krogh, Jerome Jaffe, John Ehrlichman

Network/Producer: ABC.

Original Format: 16mm film Film. Technical notes: Reel 1: poor quality, bad sound sync, faded, over-exposed, cannot hear President Nixon when he speaks. Reel 2: sound is slightly out of sync.
