Still in Key Biscayne. Only had one brief phone call from the President to get a quick review on things. He seemed pleased with the Amchitka result yesterday and the fact that the Court let us go ahead, even it was-- even if it was a narrow 4-3 vote. He does think we would've-- he would have gone ahead with the test anyway—even if the Court had ruled against it—but it would have put him in a tough spot.
