5. Cronkite/Sevareid: White House announces more campaigning. Seems to be more agreement on what went wrong over who's responsible for it going wrong, or for fixing it. In his inaugural speech President Nixon spoke on healing, unifying and building a great cathedral of the spirit. Now Nixon's aids complaining that people can't expect the Chief Executive to be a new Moses or the White House to write the new moral law, rejecting assumption President can lead the way to peace on campuses or reconciliation between whites and blacks. Vice President Agnew lays responsibility on parents, teachers, press to clean up the moral/social mess they made. On campaign trail Nixon blames rising crime and terrorism on Congress, claiming election of more Republican Congressmen will help country. . 10/20/1970.

6. Smith/Gill/Sherwood: President Thieu called all military commanders in to Saigon Airport for a secret conference. Now he publicly invited them, his cabinet, all mayors, district chiefs from country to meet in conference. Speculation grew that allies may be ready to announce unilateral ceasefire in Vietnam. Press Secretary Ziegler denies President Nixon will soon announce a ceasefire nor any announcements on Indochina. If ceasefire were to happen, President Thieu would announce it with Washington quickly endorsing action. South Vietnamese sources say Thieu is seeking support for a ceasefire. Combat activity in Vietnam may be interpreted as clearing a way for ceasefire. Vietcong base camps and staging areas south of Da Nang were attacked to facilitate US troop withdrawals from that area. If ceasefire happens, when and how US prisoners will be released. US launches campaign to get world leaders on US' side. Ceremony in Washington unveiling 2 new six cents stamps, one honoring all US servicemen - POW and MIA included. Postmaster General Winton Blount hopes the stamp would serve as constant reminder. Read note from President Nixon to make every effort, including going to Hanoi himself, to ensure Christmas letters delivered to US prisoners of war in North Vietnam. . 10/21/1970.

7. Smith: If GOP Chairman Rodgers Morton has his way, Vice President Agnew will be in office for long time to come. He'll personally nominate Agnew for VP in 1972, for President in 1976. Agnew says he's not ruling out possibility of him running for President. . 10/21/1970.

Keywords: elections, nominations, candidates, vice presidents.

Network: ABC.

8. Smith: Commentary. Current election may result in little political change. Smith sees it as single most dangerous campaign to date, claiming US close to crossing line from democracy to plutocracy. Cost of running for President grows every year, with recent inflation causing massive leap in amount spent. It's impossible to run for office without being a millionaire or being beholden to rich interests who will cover the costs. Men who were unknown a year before have leapt to fame thanks to current election. Facing the evaporation of American democracy.. 10/21/1970.

Time Code Start: 00:23:31.

Keywords: Presidential elections, campaigns, campaigning, costs, money, fundraising.

Network: ABC.

9. Chancellor/Mosbrook: Cost of living increases, rate similar to that recorded early in the year - dangerous. September increase was .005%, double what it was in August. Administration insists prospects for year indicate a decline in inflation, and White House sees it as a fluctuation that won't mean anything bad unless the figures for next month are as well, which won't be out until after the Congressional election. Democrats quick to pin inflation on Nixon admin. Because of decline in the average work week, average workers lost 83 cents in real earnings they get each week. Members of the United Electrical Workers Union, plus 70,000 other workers across country, have union contracts giving them automatic wage increases when cost of living exceeds a certain percentage. Workers claim wages too low to live on despite raises, cost of living increasing faster than wage increase. Most people don't get automatic cost increase, and this cost of living increase is harder on them as they pay about 30 percent more on typical purchases than did 11 years ago, 5 percent more than last year. . 10/21/1970.

Calls for withdrawal of Israeli troops from all occupied Arab territories, and an agreement should be reached with intent of establishing peace and integrity to Arab nations. Yaring (?) 12. Chancellor/Bennett: Saigon reports that South Vietnam will declare a unilateral ceasefire on the eve of US Congressional elections. White House claims to know nothing about this. President Thieu calls political meeting for this weekend, perhaps to discuss what would happen if enemy accepts the ceasefire offer now on table. Ordering chiefs to give maximum protection to land under their control. Government launched Land to the Tiller program to give land back to the people, already hailed as the greatest land reform program ever attempted in South East Asia, but immediately became bogged down in paperwork. Program under attack by landowners who don't want to give up their property. North Vietnamese propaganda claims program is fake. To the Vietnamese, to own the land is everything to them and they look at South Vietnamese government in better light - the intent of the program.. 10/21/1970.

13. Chancellor/Quinn/Bourgholtzer: President Nixon prefers conservative candidate James L. Buckley to regular Republican senator. Black Congressional candidate Andrew Young claims he's running against the Southern strategy as a black, liberal democrat, running in a conservative Republican district in Atlanta, Georgia where the majority of voters are white. Despite this he won the democratic primary against a white man. Speaks to white voters on middle American issues, to Blacks on going to the polls an voting. Young needs white and strong black votes to win. Berkley, California, has plenty of whites who would enjoy having a black Congressman, but they don't know if the candidate is too radical even for Berkley. Ron Dellums' campaign was uninspired until Vice President Agnew called him an extremist and radical Black Panther supporter, to which he responds Agnew's job should be to wage war against poverty and hunger not people trying to build a better society. Calls for turning around elected officials instead of blowing up bathrooms. Lost support from white liberals. . 10/21/1970.

14. Cronkite/Stanley: Less than 2 weeks before Congressional elections and the cost of living increases, which had shown signs of settling down in August, continued to increase at .005%. Washington claims things look worse than they already are. Short term setback in administration's fight against inflation. But economists claim that fluctuation is not dangerous, and a quarterly figure is more meaningful. Rate of price increase has slowed, stressed by Chairman for the Council of Economic Advisors Paul McCracken. Democrats attacked administration for not stopping inflation, and their economists state the economy is in trouble. House Ways and Means Committee Chairman Wilbur Mills predicted the 1971 fiscal year deficit will be 15 times higher than administration claims. With election day coming, each party blames the other. . 10/21/1970.

15. Cronkite/Wallace: President Nixon turns back on New York Senator Charles Goodell, indirectly supporting Conservative opponent James Buckley. Press Secretary Ronald Ziegler stated Buckley had supported Nixon on issues while Goodell hadn't. Ziegler repeated Nixon's endorsement of Governor Nelson Rockefeller, whose Democratic opponent is Arthur Goldberg. Goldberg attacks Rockefeller for pandering for votes, trying to snag working class votes while Goldberg goes after Jewish and black votes. Wallace shows Rockefeller mingling well with voters, claiming Goldberg less at easy with people - still comes off as Supreme Court Justice and aloof. Democrats outnumber Republicans by 500,000 in state.. 10/21/1970.

16. Cronkite/Sevareid: Commentary. Vice President Spiro Agnew claims people like Eric Sevareid, Howard Smith and Frank Reynolds should be publicly examined by government personnel, and that the public has a right to know their opinions and prejudices. Sevareid claims if after 30 years, thousands of broadcasts, lectures, articles etc. his stance remains unknown then he fails to see how a government examination could solve the mystery. He says their view is well known, preventing them from saying one thing on the floor and voting a different way like the politicians they're being criticized by, and they're responsible for what they say. They have to think and write their own thoughts, and unlike Agnew they don't possess "a stable of ghost writers." The central point of the free press is that it is free - free from any attempts by the government to intimidate or police.. 10/21/1970.

Gromyko's first meeting with President Nixon off to good start as Nixon probes to see if Russians will be more dependable in the nuclear arms negotiations than they've been in the Middle East, while Gromyko wanting to find out if the Washington chill towards Moscow originates from Nixon. Dropped from agenda was possible missile submarine base under construction by Russians in Cuba, leads to idea that a private arrangement has resolved the issue. 18. Reynolds: Vietcong call President Nixon's Peace Plan at the Paris Peace Talks a swindle and plot to win votes. 19. Smith/Lawrence/Jackson: Vice President Spiro Agnew booed in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, continuing his speech that the Democrats in Congress were dominated by a "little band of unwilling men out to frustrate the mandate of the majority." Claims his campaign style is to move softly through the country, quietly suggesting to voters to turn out the radical liberals. Democratic National Chairman Larry O'Brien disagrees with Agnew's style, compared it to McCarthyism and "the politics of fear". Republicans want to win Senatorial election in Michigan. President Nixon sent Mrs. Nixon to support the female candidate, Lenore Romney. Republican State Chairman William McLaughlin told GOP women leaders they had let down their Senatorial candidate, saying she's worked harder than anyone in the state and deserves votes. She doesn't mind being an underdog, makes her work harder and solidify her stances. Up against Democrat Philip Hart, who only campaigned sporadically and mostly focused on Republican and Nixon bashing. Many candidates have youth working for them, and some colleges following the "Princeton Plan," giving students 2 weeks off to campaign. Students at Queens College, New York, disillusioned with working for a campaign, claim if every single peace candidate won it wouldn't be enough to get President Nixon to stop the war. 1. Cronkite/Kalb: In his news conference, President Nixon warned the US would resume bombing North Vietnam if necessary. Capitol Hill worried. Senate Foreign Relations Committee charged Defense Secretary Laird and admin was escalating the war. Laird claims the Vietnamese can't have it both ways when they don't want air strikes in the North, admits there is an understanding between the two countries. Chairman and Senator William Fulbright charged there was a failure of intelligence regarding a failure to rescue prisoners of war, Laird refuses to admit their intelligence gathering failed. Senator Claiborne Pell restates Laird's belief that Vietnamization will be a success until we get our men back. Administration reveals for the first time unless prisoners are released, the troop withdrawal program from South Vietnam can not be complete. . 12/11/1970.

Time Code Start: 00:00:00.

Keywords: Vietnam War, Indochina War, Vietnam Prisoner of War, POW, military, officials, Congress, Senators, criticisms, espionage, spying, failures.

2. Cronkite/Rather: Understanding between Johnson administration and Hanoi at the time of the bombing halt was revealed. The administration claims to have understanding with Hanoi as bombing in North Vietnam halted. Claim Hanoi lead Johnson administration to believe that if they stopped air strikes in North the North would not cross the DMZ, no shelling of South Vietnamese cities and Saigon could be represented at the Paris Peace Talks. Hanoi never denied US reconnaissance missions in North. Former Defense Secretary Clark Clifford confirms understanding did exist, but that President Nixon has gone far beyond it and his statement in prior night's press conference was a departure from prior understanding. The bombing of North Vietnam "wasn't effective in past, won't be effective now. It didn't bring peace then, it won't bring peace now." Restarting the bombing will mean more war. . 12/11/1970.

6. Severeid: A year ago President Nixon seemed to clear national air on the Vietnam issue, but with Cambodian incursion of last spring storm clouds reappeared - disappearing when US ground troops were removed from Cambodia. Defense Secretary Laird's defensive attitude towards Senator William Fulbright, who suggested the government knew the camp was empty of US prisoners of war - he's been suspicious since Johnson administration. Truth about our actions have to be gouged out of administration peace by piece. Nixon says if North increases fighting as US withdraws troops, he won't hesitate to restart bombing. North Vietnamese appear to be building up for attack on South, proving test for Vietnamization. If South can't handle it then the entire US policy and program will be jeopardized and dissent will boil up across country. If South Vietnamese can't protect themselves now, why would they be able to do so in 1972? . 12/11/1970.

Every international thing they did worked while the US stumbled. Editor of Harper's John Fischer article imagining how things would sound in Russian Parliament if they had a House Un-Russian Affairs Committee. Apply it to present day. If hard lining super-patriots dared to speak up in Russia, what would they say to a leadership that let Romania slip away, is talked back to by Yugoslavia, alienated most of the strong Western Communists with conquest of Czechoslovakia and the money spent to get a foothold in the Middle East?. 5/28/1971.

Talks focused on defensive missile, or ABM, agreement but still to make progress on offensive missiles. This agreement improved the mood of the meeting. Meeting lasted an hour. How to verify suspected ABM radars is a technical problem not solved. US insists that USSR curb their SS9 missiles, Ambassador Gerard Smith hasn't been able to get Russians to talk about it. Anti-Ballistic Missile sites would be among first affected by a disarmament agreement, like one in North Dakota that is building silos and radar systems possible of intercepting enemy missiles more than 1,000 miles away at $160 million. . 5/28/1971.

In the first quarter of 1971 over 4,000 people turned themselves in for help in Vietnam alone, and believes many have returned home with a drug problem and not getting the problem they need as the civilian sector is not equipped to handle the problem. He's inching towards an easier relationship with Communist China, the ultimate price being the exit of Taiwan from the UN and towards a safer understanding with Russian on nuclear weapons. 9. Reasoner: Commentary. President Nixon seems to have an issue when he speaks of giving the highest priority to the problem of drug addiction. Confusion arises about the situation as it is really 2 problems: 1) the problem of those who are addicted and 2) society's problem as the addicts prey on society. Every indication is that what has been done for the last 25 years has been a failure. Legalization of weed would lead to advertising and marketing, something America would go overboard with. . 6/2/1971.

The government isn't meeting the needs of these cities through the grant process, so they need to provide further allocation of resources to the state and local levels where the problems occur. Police suspended normal arresting methods when demonstrators swore to shut down the government, hauling away 13,000 people. Suspended constitutional rights? Nixon claims it is an exaggeration considering what the protestors were doing or threatening to do. The protestors were later released on grounds for improper arrests made by police, only about 7,000 charged. 27. Reasoner/Geer: (beginning cut off) President Nixon held meeting on how to handle rising number of police officers killed in the line of duty. They produced a plan to ask Congress to give $50,000 to the family of any such officer, but no request for legislation that made killing an officer a federal crime. 51 police officers have been killed in action this year so far. Police Commissioner of New York City Pat Murphy and the Executive Director for the International Association of Chiefs of Police were not invited, they claim for political reasons and J. Edgar Hoover's personal animosity. Murphy was critical of the May Day arrests in Washington but has had 7 officers killed on duty this year, and his department represents almost 10% of all law enforcement officers in country. . 6/3/1971.

28. Reasoner/Gill/Zimmerman: Iowa Senator Harold Hughes claims President Nixon has been "sleeping through the tidal wave of heroin addiction among veterans returning from Vietnam." Nixon has called in military leaders to deal with the crisis. Disappointed in lack of effort in the past. Under his orders all military drug addicts will be treated with methadone - the first government endorsement of methadone and wholesale use on military personal. His endorsement came reluctantly as he believes better treatment must be found, but until then methadone is the best available answer. FDA will begin thorough study of methadone usage and its effects, yet despite this some cities are already using it. Officials believe that 50% of the crimes committed in Washington, D.C. are done by people on heroin. 244 former heroin addicts come to a narcotics treatment clinic in north east Washington every day to get their dose of methadone. One man has been a heroin addict for over 20 years, and now is on methadone everyday in order to function. Other programs believe trading one addictions for another is not the best solution, and concentration on re-education and changing addict's personality. Narcotics Treatment Administration's Robert DuPont believes in some cases hard addicts can't quit without the use of methadone. Since it is new, no one is sure of possible long-term effects but believe it's better than long-term heroin addiction. . 6/3/1971.

30. Reasoner: Commentary. 32 million voted for Nixon in 1968, and 200,000 voted for Wilbur Mills for Congress in 1970. Yet on several issues of importance to 200 million Americans, Mills is more powerful and influential than Nixon. Not because the Democrats controlled Senate as he's been a problem for Democratic Presidents. The issue of revenue sharing isn't being handled equally by elected officials who are supposed to represent America, but just one representative who's district isn't concerned with the issue. Founding Fathers set up a balance of power, intended to balance the President against a widely represented Congress - not a legislative dictator. If Mills is really toying with the idea to run for President, why would he give up all that power?. 6/3/1971.

1. Cronkite/Rather/Silver: International Association of Chiefs of Police says 51 police officers have been killed in assaults this year, with the largest amount taking place in New York City - 7. President Nixon discussed the problem with law enforcement officials. Controversy surrounding the fact that New York City Police Commissioner Patrick Murphy wasn't invited. News Secretary claimed it was because he wasn't a police chief, but Attorney General John Mitchell said J. Edgar Hoover told him Murphy had declined in order to investigate the death of 2 policemen. During conference Nixon and law enforcement discussed what the federal government can and should do about increase of assassinations of police officers, deciding on conferences and that the federal government should give $50,000 to each officer's family. Nixon would not seek tougher gun control laws nor laws making it a federal crime to murder an officer. Mitchell doesn't want the FBI or other federal agency acting as a national police force, and that the issue is a local problem but with assistance the police chiefs want to handle it as a local crime. Commissioner Murphy upset he wasn't invited, yet had recently criticized mass arrests of anti-war protestors in DC. He claims he is the equivalent of the chief of police in New York City, said he assumes it was a political move and done on purpose. . 6/3/1971.

His pictures and campaign posters are everywhere in one small village, given credit for everything good - no one dares talk about anything bad. States that if this is the government the US is fighting to protect, 20 casualties a week is not an acceptable for him. Criticizes President Nixon's upcoming trip to China as being nothing more than a photo-op and way to get votes instead of a crucial attempt to understand their role in Southeast Asia. It changes when the Judges who interpret it change, and the new session of the court opens with only 7 judges. When the new judges are appointed, Nixon will have filled 4 of the 9 spots.
