1. Smith/Shoumacher/Geer: Seven indicted on Watergate caper with statement by Kleindienst. Federal grand jury indicts 7 on charges of conspiracy, breaking and entering, theft, and installing eavesdropping devices at Democratic national headquarters. (Justice Department) Several men charged have ties to White House or President Nixon's reelection campaign. James McCord, G. Gordon Liddy, and E. Howard Hunt implicated in Watergate bugging scandal. Attorney General Richard Kleindienst rejects Democrat charges that investigation was not thorough enough, that even more important Republicans involved. Bernard Barker, alleged leader of Watergate break-in, with attorney Henry Rothblatt, surrenders to Dade County state attorney He is charged with fraudulently notarizing an endorsement on a check originating from Nixon reelection campaign. Virgilio Gonzoles says he's an accomplished locksmith but never opened anything illegally. Frank Sturgis speaks of international Communist conspiracy.] Said to be a highly anti-Castro Cuban expatriate. Bernard Barker says Washington, DC District Attorney threatened that he, Barker, would rot in jail unless he talked. Says he can't be made to talk. Eugenio Martinez also involved.. 9/15/1972.

7. Chancellor/Stern: Watergate bugging, seven indicted with statements by Kleindienst, L. Patrick Gray. 7 federal indictments returned in Watergate bugging affair, a case which began last June when 5 men apprehended in Watergate building headquarters of Democratic national party, installing or servicing eavesdropping equipment. G. Gordon Liddy and E. Howard Hunt (former White House consultant) indicted with 5 caught in headquarters. Justice Department refuses Democrat demand to appoint outside prosecutor. FBI acting director Patrick Gray says top President associates (John Mitchell, Maurice Stans, John Ehrlichman) were questioned (some in presence of President attorney John Dean). Attorney General Richard Kleindienst says investigation complete. Gray says he will report to Attorney General; Kleindienst says FBI carried out most comprehensive investigation since death of President Kennedy. James McCord, former security chief, Nixon campaign, and Bernard Barker, who received Nixon campaign money, among 5 defendants caught at Watergate. Barker turns self in to Florida state attorney Charged with fraudulently notarizing a $25,000 check, 1 of 5 Republican checks that mysteriously wound up in his bank account Frank Sturgis, Eugenio Martinez, Virgilio Gonzalez, all anti-Castro Cuban-Americans, also caught at Watergate. Their attorney, Henry Rothblatt, does not allow them to discuss case. Barker says McGovern actions remind him of what happened in Cuba, and that country turned Communists. Gonzales (locksmith), thinks McGovern would resume relations with Castro. Martinez says McGovern tries to change things by acclamation, like Communists do. Sturgis fears international Communist conspiracy. Rothblatt says Communists infiltrate legitimate orgs. To use them as fronts for evil political purpose. McGovern Campaign Chairperson Lawrence O'Brien calls for investigation by special prosecutor. Nixon Campaign Chairperson Clark MacGregor hopes Democrats will stop making irresponsible charges in Watergate case. 9/15/1972.
