

Democracy for Juniors

Welcome to the Richard Nixon Presidential Library! To earn your “Democracy for Juniors” badge today, you must complete the five activities listed on this worksheet and have an adult witness sign it. Good luck and have fun!

1. Find out about local government.
2. Find out about state government.
3. Find out about our country’s legislative branch.
4. Find out about our country’s executive branch.
5. Find out about our country’s judicial branch.

You will discover some new things about America’s presidents while creating a presidential trivia challenge!

- 1) What are the three parts of state and local government?

- 2) Why is it divided into parts?

- 3) What does each branch do?

- 4) Who is the head of the federal executive branch?

5) Collect fun facts about President Nixon for a trivia challenge.

Reflection

6) What was the most surprising thing you discovered?

7) Would you want to be president of the United States? Why or why not?

8) How can you share what you've learned with other girls?

Fun Idea:

Come up with fun questions and quiz your friends or family. Can you think of prizes for the winners? You could host a trivia night at home. Make themed snacks, or guests dress up as their favorite president or presidential candidate.
