Part of a conversation between President Nixon and Stephen B. Bull in the Oval Office at 10:16 am on March 23, 1971

Conversation No. 472-5

Bull: Mr. President, Congressman [Leslie C.] Arends is here for five minutes.

President: Oh yeah. Tell [H. R. ("Bob")] Haldeman not to come in until -- I just wanted to call [unintelligible]

Bull: -- told Haldeman--

President: I just, never -- I just told Haldeman to come in. Tell him to wait.

Bull: Oh, I didn't realize it, sir.

President: All right, hold him. I'll just be a minute.

Bull: Fine, sir.
