Conversation No. 2-100

President: Henry, uh, said that somewhere he was in California that he thought there was a [unintelligible] the politicians out there that, uh, there was just a strong reaction against the demonstrators and for what we're doing. He said it was very, very strong [unintelligible].

Colson: [Unintelligible]. The people remember [unintelligible].

President: Sure.

Colson: [Unintelligible].

President: Yeah.

Colson: [Unintelligible].
