THE WHITE HOUSE
THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1969

PRESIDENT'S SCENARIO:

At 10:25 a.m. you and Mrs. Nixon will be escorted from your office to the edge of the terrace outside your office. Four ruffles and flourishes will be played. As "Hail to the Chief" is played, you will be escorted to the vicinity of the platform on the South Lawn. A few moments later, the car carrying President and Mrs. Lleras and Ambassador and Mrs. Mosbacher will pull up to the Diplomatic Entrance of the Residence. The Chief of Protocol will present President and Mrs. Lleras to you and Mrs. Nixon, and then to Secretary and Mrs. Rogers and Admiral and Mrs. Moorer.

NOTE:
There will be photo coverage of your greeting your honored guests.

Following the photographs, you will escort President Lleras, with him on your right, onto the Platform facing toward the Washington Monument. Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Lleras will be escorted to a position on the lawn to the right of the platform.

The Commander of Troops, positioned in front of you, will bring the Honor Guard to Present Arms and salute. Following four ruffles and flourishes, the band will play the national anthems of Columbia, the United States, and a 21 gun salute will be fired simultaneously with the music.

Upon completion of honors, the Commander will give the troopers the Order Arms, salute and report, "Sir, the Honor Guard is formed".
SCENARIO FOR ARRIVAL OF PRESIDENT LLERAS CONTINUED

You will then escort President Lleras (with him to your right) toward the band. The Commander of Troops will take position to the right of President Lleras and you, in turn, will be to the Commander's right.

The Commander will then guide the party through the inspection, beginning at the right of the band, passing along the front rank of troops to the left flank of the Honor Guard and then around the rear of the formation and back to the starting point at the right front of the band.

NOTE
When passing in front of the colors, you and the inspection party will salute. Salutes will not be rendered when passing to the rear of the colors.

The Commander of Troops will halt, salute, and report, "Sir, this completes the inspection." You will then escort President Lleras back onto the platform. The Commander of Troops will return to his post in front of the platform and will bring the Honor Guard to Present Arms. He and his staff will salute President Lleras. After bringing the Honor Guard to Order Arms, the Commander will salute you and report, "Sir, this concludes the ceremony."

THE PRESIDENT:

At 4:45 p.m. Congressman Edward J. Derwinski, His Holiness Catholicos Khoren I, Mr. George Mardikian, and an Armenian interpreter will be escorted into your office for a brief meeting.

This is a courtesy call and it is estimated that it will be of approximately 10 minutes duration, at the conclusion of which your guests will be escorted out.

NOTE

A White House photographer will be available to take pictures.

No remarks have been prepared or are required.

BACKGROUND

Catholicos Khoren I is the leader of the major Free World branch of the Armenian Orthodox Church, headquartered in Lebanon. As such, he is one of the two top leaders of this Church. His rival for leadership of the Armenian Church is headquartered in Soviet Armenia. Khoren does not recognize his legitimacy, and it can be assumed that Khoren's meeting with you today will help him in that rivalry.

Khoren I called on you in Washington in October 1957.

He is calling on you today at the request of Congressman Derwinski and President Helou of Lebanon.
The Vice President will host a luncheon for him.

He was previously scheduled to call on you in mid-May but was hospitalized in Boston due to exhaustion. You sent him a wire wishing him well.

His Holiness is in this country to visit his churches.

Mr. George Mardikian is Chairman of the National Reception Committee for Khoren's visit.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS:

---your concern for the Armenian community in this country and abroad.

---your deep concern about Lebanon and the Near East, emphasizing your interest in the political independence and territorial integrity of Lebanon and in a fair Arab-Israeli settlement.

SPECIAL NOTE:

---Dr. Kissinger is aware this meeting is taking place and sees no harm in it.
List of those accompanying His Holiness Khoren I on his visit to the White House on June 12, 1969.

In the meeting with the President:

Edward J. Derwinski, Congressman

His Holiness Khoren I, Leader of the Free World Branch of the Armenian Orthodox Church

H. Khatchadourian, Archbishop, Prelate of the Armenian Church

George Mardikian, Honorary Chairman of Reception Committee for His Holiness' Visit to the U. S.

At the conclusion of the entertainment, you will go forward to congratulate the artists and to be photographed by the White House photographer.

You and Mrs. Nixon and Ambassador and Mrs. Mosbacher will then escort President and Mrs. Lleras from the East Room to the car at the North Portico and wish them good night. After their departure, you and Mrs. Nixon will be escorted to the Family Quarters.

There will be dancing in the Grand Hall and champagne for your guests.
Arthur Whittemore & Jack Lowe

The team of Whittemore and Lowe has achieved the pinnacle of prestige and popularity in the field of music. The number of great symphony orchestras with which they have played as soloists is one excellent indicator of the high esteem in which they are held. In addition, they have played on numerous radio programs and have pioneered the classics on television. They were the first classical instrumentalists to have their own daily television show. In the recording field, they are among the few classical performers to sell over one million records.

Whittemore and Lowe are the only soloists ever to have premiered two major concertos with the New York Philharmonic in a single concert.

Mr. Whittemore is from Vermillion, South Dakota, and Mr. Lowe is from Denver, Colorado. They met as students at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York. Their astonishing record of re-engagements and average of 68 concerts per season have made them household names.

SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICE

THE WHITE HOUSE

SUNDAY, JUNE 15, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 10:45 a.m. the Reverend Norman Vincent and Mrs. (Ruth) Peale will be escorted to the Yellow Oval Room to join you, Mrs. Nixon, Tricia, and Julie and David Eisenhower for coffee. Your family and Mrs. Peale will be escorted to their places in the East Room at 10:55. You and Reverend Peale will be escorted to the East Room at 11:00.

Following brief welcoming remarks, you will turn the service over to Dr. Peale and take your place in the first row next to Mrs. Nixon. At the conclusion of the service at 11:30, you and your family and the Peales will be escorted to the State Dining Room where you will receive your guests. Refreshments will be served.

There will be press pool coverage of the service but no photographs.

Performing this Sunday is the Negro Men's Choir of Douglas Memorial Community Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

NOTE:
Dr. and Mrs. Peale will be joining you and your family for lunch.

SPECIAL NOTE:

In April Dr. Peale extended an invitation to you to receive the Family of Man Award of the Council of Churches of the City of New York in October or November of this year. This invitation has been regretted.

In the same letter, Dr. Peale indicated that Mrs. Peale had just undergone an operation on her ear. You personally wrote to Dr. Peale extending your best wishes and hopes for a speedy recovery for Mrs. Peale.
