The 12 regional finalists of the National Public Speaking Contest are divided into two categories: Scout finalists and Explorer finalists. The winner of each category will receive a $2,500 college scholarship from the Reader's Digest Association; second prize, $750; third prize, $450; fourth prize, $350; fifth prize, $250; and sixth prize, $200. Each finalist was selected in competition at the district, local council, and regional levels. The two national winners will be selected during the national finals at the Washington Hilton Hotel, Washington, D.C., on Wednesday, Feb. 20.

SCOUT FINALISTS

Mark Guthrie, 17
19 South 21st St.
Terre Haute, Ind. 47803
(East Central Region)

Mark belongs to Troop 346, sponsored by the Westminster Presbyterian Church. A Scout for 6 years, he holds the rank of Eagle with 2 palms. Other Scouting activities include the Order of the Arrow, Scout Government Day, and several areas of council service. Mark is president of his student council, a member of the math and speech clubs, and the high school track team. After graduating from college, he plans a career in professional Scouting or law.

Kevin Hyde, 17
94 Whitcomb Road
Fulton, N.Y. 13069
(Northeast Region)

A member of Troop 764, sponsored by the Lanigan School PTA, Kevin has been a Scout for 6 years. He is an Eagle Scout with 4 palms. His other activities include drama, choral singing, and wrestling. He is a member of the National Honor Society. Kevin's hobbies include camping, skiing, singing, and woodworking. He is interested in a career in environmental science.
Phillip Klawuhn, 17
703 South 13th St.
St. Joseph, Mo. 64501
(North Central Region)

Phillip began his Scout career 5 years ago as a member of Troop 26, sponsored by the Immaculate Conception--St. Peter and Paul Church. An Eagle Scout, he has served as a patrol leader, senior patrol leader, and junior assistant Scoutmaster. He is also involved in the National Forensic League, Junior Achievement, and the National Honor Society. Other activities include baseball and golf. Phillip looks forward to a career in law.

Richard Ohendalski, 17
214 East Carby
Houston, Tex. 77037
(South Central)

A member of Troop 750, sponsored by the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church, Richard has been a Scout for 6 years. In addition to earning his Eagle award, he has served as a senior patrol leader, scribe, and assistant Scoutmaster. Richard is a member of the National Forensic League, his student council, and the National Honor Society. A member of the varsity baseball team, Richard enjoys all outdoor sports. He plans a career in finance.

Bruce Ragan, 16
952 Hawthorne Lane
Rock Hill, S.C. 29730
(Southeast Region)

Bruce is an Eagle Scout with Troop 60, sponsored by the First Reformed Presbyterian Church. He has been in Scouting for over 5 years. In addition to his Scouting activities, Bruce is active in the Order of DeMolay, the Rock Hill Youth Advisory Council, and the community human relations program. His recreational interests include tennis, swimming, camping, and reading. After college, Bruce plans a career in law.
Michael Snyder, 17
939 Chestnut Ave.
Redlands, Calif. 92373
(Western Region)

Michael is a member of Troop 22, sponsored by the Evening Kiwanis Club of Redland. He has been a Scout for five years and is an Eagle Scout. His other activities include publicity work and heading a number of community youth organizations. He is a member of the National Forensic League, the American Field Service, and the Future Business Leaders of America. Michael is interested in teaching speech or becoming a pathologist.
