November 8, 1972

Dear John:

I can imagine the number of bizarre cases and the many anxieties you've been up against since the Cuban idiots struck.

For your efforts, friendship and understanding, I express my deeply felt thanks. You are cool, have class and can be counted on and trusted at all times.

More is to come -- undoubtedly. I am available for whatever help I can give. Otherwise I am in the rear guard, cheering you on.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dwight L. Chapin

Honorable John Dean
