FOR DWIGHT CHAPIN

Mrs. John McCormack is failing and is hospitalized more or less permanently. I understand the former Speaker has taken a room next door in the hospital and rarely leaves her side. She is now suffering lapses of memory, etc.

She is the closest thing to John McCormack's heart and John McCormack is very close, sentimentally, to Hale Boggs, Carl Albert, Wilbur Mills and other key Democratic figures.

Were the President to pay a call on Mrs. McCormack, with Mrs. Nixon, at some time in the near future, it might have very significant but very intangible benefits in our relations with the House Leadership. You may want to check this with Clark MacGregor and others for verification but conversations with Mrs. Boggs recently convinces me that this might be a smart move.
