RE: Ed McDaniel

Jack Caulfield called me the other day regarding Ed McDaniel. Evidently he has been cut out of everything in the President's re-election effort and is very upset. He has indicated that he knows a lot about the 1968 campaign and has indicated that he will "talk".

Not having been around for that campaign, I am unable to judge the value of his implied threats.

John asked that I pass this information along for whatever action you deem appropriate.

Attached is a memo John sent to Clark MacGregor in July on this same subject - we have heard nothing.

FOR JOHN CAMPBELL

During the President's recent trip to Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, he made an unscheduled visit to a church where a young couple was being married. During the visit he hit Ehrlichman for $20 to drop in the poor box.

Your ideas as to how Mr. Ehrlichman can be reimbursed for this unexpected drain on his finances would be most appreciated.

Tod R. Hullin
