EXECUTIVE OFFICE

April 9, 1973

Dear Mr. Haldeman:

Since you became Honorary Manager of the Plaza, I must say things have improved. Your inspired leadership and quiet direction behind the scenes are obviously responsible for the improved morale of the staff and resultant finer service to our guests. Even more important is the increased staff--ME.

You see, the truth is that YOUR SECRETARY here at the Plaza, Pat Humbert, is blonde and terribly good-looking; so much so, in fact, that your secretary at home may become alarmed. I have therefore been appointed as your home secretary's private Morale Enhancer. If you can have a Secretary at the Plaza, so can that busy lady who works so hard for you in your own office.

I have enclosed my business card, which is actually for your secretary. Please tell her that I can do anything for her that Pat Humbert can do for you--and if Pat steps out of the office for a minute, I might even have the good fortune to help you personally.

Please start those cards and letters coming. I'm number 2 so I try harder.

Expectantly,

Marilyn Schneider

P. S. My phone extension is #2209, one digit HIGHER than Pat's.
