MEMORANDUM FOR H. R. HALDEMAN
FROM C. E. STUART
RE Julie and David -- Tokyo Over Night

In our meeting on March 19, 1970, the President specifically stated that Julie and David Eisenhower should stay at the American Embassy residence while in Tokyo.

Because Julie has indicated a preference for hotels and because I have learned that Ambassador Myer's wife is inclined to be a little pushy and will no doubt attempt a "take over" of the Eisenhowers' schedule, my preference for accommodations is the Okura Hotel in Tokyo. It is purported to be one of the half dozen great hotels of the World and is directly across the street from the American Embassy.

A Japanese government quest house is also an alternative.

Unless the President has strong feelings that the Eisenhowers should stay in the American compound I should like to plan on using the Okura.

My apologies for distrubing you with such minutia.

Thank you.
