MEMORANDUM FOR H. R. HALDEMAN

FROM:

HERBERT G. KLEIN H.K.

I have a particular problem which I would appreciate your bringing up with the President at an appropriate time in the near future.

Carroll Rosenbloom, who you know to be the new owner of the Rams and a former owner of the Colts, has an application in for membership in the Bel Air Country Club.

The President is an honorary member of the club. It now has one Jewish member, and Carroll would be the second. If the President felt he wanted to intervene, he could write a letter to Rosenbloom saying how pleased he is that Carroll is seeking club membership, or he could intervene in another way.

I would suggest consideration of the former, but not the latter. I know he understands all the implications of this. The request comes from Dan Klosterman, who is Carroll's General Manager, and also a member of the Country Club. Additionally, he is a longtime friend of mine.

Please advise what action is taken.

None.
