THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Dear Julie,

I don't know what to do with this if anything. It appears that the Republican National Committee was to pick up the tab, but have passed it back to David. I shall be happy to clarify the matter
if you can give me some guidance on it.

Thank you,

Gwen

Dear Mr. Odell:

Enclosed are copies of hotel bills for David Eisenhower and Robert Atheny from October 12 and 13 of 1970.

Mr. Atheny signed these bills instructing us to forward the charges to your attention. It is now over 4 months since we mailed these bills and have had no response.

Would you please advise why we have not received payment if there is something wrong, otherwise may we have your check for $446.74 by return mail.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE HONORABLE JOHN N. MITCHELL
THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

FROM: H. R. HALDEMAN

SUBJECT: Lee Nunn

I have just been advised that Lee Nunn is resigning as Director of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee.

Lee is considered by many to be a cold fish, as you doubtless know. He is a plodder and probably doesn't impress too many people with his outward appearance. The fact is, however, that Lee knows where the money is. He is a tiger who digs in tenaciously -- methodically going through the thousands of names each year, and he has been enormously effective in raising money in good times and bad.

I understand Lee has no idea what he is going to do. He probably should be brought under our wing because the information that he possesses in his head could be enormously valuable. He could be a key figure in our campaign finance operation. It would be better for us to get our hands on him than to have him go either to the RNC or to a group of Senators -- the latter is apparently his present thinking.

Nunn is resigning, by the way, because he feels that Dominick is a very weak campaign committee chairman, or at least so he says. Obviously there is some problem between Dominick and Nunn.

Gentlemen:

Enclosed is a check from the Reader's Digest Association for $500. This amount is equal to the payment I was to receive for a reprint of a personal article in their publication. However, because of my current position, I am not able to accept a payment of this sort. The magazine consented to donate this sum to the foundation.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

MEMORANDUM FOR:

FROM:

H. R. HALDEMAN

SUBJECT:

Political Liaison

Now that the RNC has been reorganized, we are transferring as many political activities as possible there. Only essential White House functions in the political area, such as answering mail, receiving telephone calls, and doing the routine political liaison required will be performed at the White House.

Handling these duties, as in the past, will be Harry Dent and his staff. When questions arise as to the political situation in a given state or area, it will be Dent's responsibility to provide the answers for the President and the White House staff. His office will supply advice or information whenever political considerations could affect some decision.

There should be no White House political activities except those generally outlined above.
