Dear Ralph:

Thanks very much for the two tickets to "Country Girl" last night. I was not able to go myself, but one of the girls in the office attended and thoroughly enjoyed it.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Bruce Kehrli

MEMORANDUM FOR: DWIGHT CHAPIN
FROM: BRUCE KEHRLI
SUBJECT: Julie's Schedule

This morning Clark MacGregor raised the point of liaison with Congressional Relations people in scheduling Julie. Evidently on one of her stops there was a problem with coordination with the local political people.

He didn't go into the specifics of the problem and obviously Julie is not going to be able to see everybody everywhere she goes, however, he did request that whoever was scheduling Julie establish liaison with the Congressional Relations Office in preparation for any of her trips.

Also, could you please have someone get back to <sup>M</sup>Mr. MacGregor and let him know that something is being done about this.

Dear Dave:

Thanks for your letter -- its good to hear from you again. I'm glad to hear that you enjoyed your work with the advance team for the Washington State trip and I'm sorry that you won't be able to help us out again -- at least for awhile.

I can appreciate your wanting to get into something on a full-time basis. You're certainly fortunate to be able to stay in the San Francisco area.

Please keep in touch and let me know how things are going. Say hello to Ritchey and Rounsville if you see them.

Sterling wanted to say hello and Christopher (now nine months old) sends along a toothless, dribbling "hi"!

Sincerely,

Bruce Kehrli

Dear Bruce:

This is to advise you that financial circumstances have forced me to return to the practice of law on a full-time basis. I am currently working for the Alameda County District Attorney's Office in Oakland and will probably remain in this position through next Spring, atleast.

My opportunity to participate with the advance team during the President's recent trip through Washington State was one which I enjoyed tremendously, and I regret that, as things stand now, I will not be able to take on any similar assignments in the near future. As we approach convention time next summer, however, if the need arises for temporary personnel to assist with the preparations in San Diego, do let me hear from you. By then, I would expect that the office would grant me a brief leave of absence.

Everyone I spoke with on the trip in September, including Mr. Haldeman, had fine praise of the job you are doing at The White House, Bruce, and I hope that you will "hang in there" after your military obligation has terminated

Please give my best to Sterling.

Fondly,

David A. Mulford

Dear Phil:

Just a note to thank you for the tickets to "Country Girl". Unfortunately, we were not able to attend, but the tickets were put to excellent use by a couple of the girls in our office.

As you know, these girls work very long hours and are totally dedicated. I really appreciated the opportunity to do something for them.

Incidentally, I have heard nothing but praise about the play -- looks like another five week sellout.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Bruce Kehrli

MEMORANDUM FOR: H. R. HALDEMAN

FROM: BILL SAFIRE

The New York Time Sunday Magazine has asked me for a short article satirizing the campaign oratory and slogans of the Democratic candidates.

I could poke some fun at the tired cliches that will be tossed at us, before they even get warmed up, in the medium that will hurt them most.

Okay to do?

Dear Mr. Haldeman,

My name is Richard Waycott. I don't know if you remember my father or myself,
but I went to The Harvard
School with your son,
Hank, for three years
until you and your family moved back to Washington D.C. I am now attending school in New Jersey and I was wondering if Hank is also attending school in New England. It has been many years since I have seen him and it is always good to renew old friendships.

I realize you are a very busy man, but I was hoping you might be able to take time to inform me of Hanks where-abouts and, possibly, an address, at which, I could reach him.

I was in Washington last weekend but I didn't know how to contact you. I hope the White House is sufficient enough in getting this letter to you.

Thank you so much for your time; I hope someday to see you in the near future! Love and Peace,
Richard

Dear Nell:

Thank you very much for the bib you brought back from Europe for Christopher. That was very thoughtful of you and Sterling and I really appreciate it.

Christopher does too, in fact when he saw it he gave it a very enthusiastic "huh"--- differentiated from an unenthusiastic "huh". As you can see he has a fairly limited vocabulary.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Bruce A. Kehrli
