MEMORANDUM TO: H. R. HALDEMAN
FROM: PAT BUCHANAN

Attached is a letter from William F. Buckley which is somewhat self-explanatory. What I think they are asking for is not our "contributors list" but the "direct mail" list of small contributors. And what they have in mind is a "run-through" of that -- at cost -- in order to solicit for National Review subscriptions. I personally think no harm would be done -- and as these small contributors would not be dunned for funds, but for subscriptions.

What do you think?

Buchanan

*John Dean?
What say you?
L.*

*I understand from Stans that P
has said the lists
should not be given to anyone!*

*Pat can respond
by saying we
can't do it because
of the criticism
we would get --
also he can
go to GAO
where the names of contributors
are a matter
of public Record --*

WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, JR.

Editor

December 19, 1972

Dear Pat:

Let me be plain: we would deeply appreciate it if we could get the list of contributors for the purpose of NR subscriptions.

Helplessly,

Wm. F. Buckley, Jr.
