RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL

TO: Walter Peterson, Governor of New Hampshire

RECOMMENDED BY: Pat Buchanan, Harry Dent, and Harry Flemming

PURPOSE: To thank Governor Peterson for his letter to YAF rejecting the proclamation for "Free China Day"

BACKGROUND: There have been conflicting reports about whether Governor Peterson has been too friendly or merely civil to Pete McCloskey. Peterson's letter to YAF says: "I am a firm supporter of President Nixon, particularly in his efforts to achieve peace through a more realistic attitude toward the world's largest country." The Attorney General has selected Lane Dwinell to be Chairman of the New Hampshire Committee for the Re-Election of the President. The announcement will be made around November 1, 1971. Governor Peterson knows of Dwinell's selection. No letter has been sent.

TALKING POINTS:

1. Thank you for sending me a copy of your letter to Ron Docksai of YAF. I appreciate your support for my trip to Peking.
2. I understand Harry Flemming has been up to talk with you. What was your reaction to his efforts?

October 18, 1971
