MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
March 15, 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR:    L. HIGBY
FROM:            GORDON STRACHAN

Jack Gleason and I will have lunch together Thursday or Friday.

When we talked today he asked if you still had his October 1
"confidential" memorandum to Mr. Haldeman concerning the "Relationship between Occidental Petroleum and Senator Gore". He thinks it may have been given to Clark Mollenhoff. Gleason wants us to get the material back from Mollenhoff quietly because there is an annotated annual report on Vahlsing that Gleason needs.
MEMORANDUM FOR: GORDON STRACHAN
FROM: L. HIGBY

As follow-up on a phone conversation Haldeman had with Herb Kalmbach yesterday afternoon at 3:00 -- please check with Rose Woods and get Bill Rhyne's phone number for Herb so Herb can call Rhyne to follow-up.

The Sloan situation was reviewed again and it was finally agreed that anybody who should be requesting money should go to Sloan and Sloan in turn would check with you. The point should be made that there are very few people in here who have the right to go to Sloan -- only the senior people in certain offices -- i.e., Morgan, Colson, Dent, Klein, possibly Magruder. Cashier and people under Klein do not have the right to go directly to Sloan, they have to go through their senior person.
MEMORANDUM

To: Gordon Strachan
From: Lee Nunn

I met with Secretary Morton and Bob Hitt yesterday. They both insist that it is too early for them to get the $25,000 for re-payment. Rog Morton said the White House had assisted other campaigns without demanding re-payment. I sense a hedging on the commitment. If the commitment for re-payment was made to H, I would suggest that in the very near future it may be necessary for him to contact RCBM personally.

CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM FOR: H.R. Haldeman
FROM: Gordon Strachan
SUBJECT: Funds for Special Election in Maryland

Sloan delivered the $25,000 cash to Bob Hitt by the close of business yesterday. In the course of the discussions with Hitt, Sloan received the impression that Hitt knew of Morton's commitment to repay the amount shortly after the election whether Bill Mills wins or loses.

Dent was informed of the transfer, commitment, and repayment details last night. He expressed the view that he's "glad he's not in Morton's shoes on the commitment."

Sloan is following-up on Kalmbach's contacts to assure a strong inflow of cash. Fifty thousand is expected daily and another $100,000 within two weeks. Sloan talked with Kalmbach on Monday, May 10, about other specific transactions. The net result is that Sloan should be able to respond if another reasonable request were submitted.

Kalmbach will return from Europe in two weeks. That would seem to be an appropriate time for a detailed review of the financial position, so that a report can be prepared for you.

Sloan can have the $25,000 in cash by the close of business today.

You wanted to call Secretary Morton back to inform him that $25,000 would be supplied on the express condition that it would be paid back shortly after the May 27 election regardless of whether the candidate, Bill Mills, wins or loses. A suggested talking paper is attached.

Hugh Sloan can handle the transfer details with Bob Hitt. After you talk with Morton, I can explain the agreement and procedure to Sloan.

Recommendation:

Dent was originally told that there would be no funds available. He should now be told of the commitment without involving him in the details of repayment.

TALKING PAPER FOR SECRETARY MORTON

SUBJECT: Funds for Maryland Special Election

After our telephone conversation this morning, I discussed the matter with the Attorney General. We agreed that we can advance $25,000 in cash with the understanding that you will reimburse us in cash shortly after the May 27 election.

At the risk of overemphasis, the Attorney General and I believe that this transfer and repayment must be considered a commitment by you. Otherwise an uncontrollable precedent of access to "our" funds for special elections would be established.

I will have Hugh Sloan work out the transfer details with Bob Hitt.

SUBJECT: Morton Request for Funds for Special Election in Maryland

Yesterday you indicated to Secretary Morton that the chances were very slim of us supplying funds to the special election.

He was directed to approach the campaign committee and RNC. However, in his mind there may be some question as to whether you were going to double check the level of our funds and get back to him.

As I understand this morning, we do not have funds available for this purpose. If that is the case, you may want to send the attached memorandum to Morton or use it as a talking paper.

SUBJECT: Special Election in Maryland

Dent has submitted the attached request for $20,000 to aid Bill Mills' campaign for Rogers Morton's seat.

You will recall that the rule for candidate support is: "none . . . (of 'our' funds) at any time in any case." (memo attached). Dent is aware of this reaction to his previous request for funds in the South Carolina race. However, Dent feels that this seat can be won and that a loss would be interpreted as a defeat for the administration.

Recommendation:

The rule is clear, and Dent's arguments are not that strong. The request should be denied.

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 4, 1971

FOR: BOB HAIDEMAN
FROM: HARRY DENT
SUBJECT: Funds for Bill Mills' Campaign

Rogers Morton and the Congressional Campaign Committee people are pushing hard for additional funds for Bill Mills in his efforts to succeed Morton in the First District of Maryland. The election is set for May 27, and the need for funds is now.

Prior to Morton this was a Democrat seat because this is a Democrat constituency. Morton won in a fluke, with the sitting Congressman being convicted of a crime, and then went on to personally win big victories.

Mills was Morton's administrative assistant, but he is no Morton politically speaking. The race is rated a virtual tossup. It is one we should take no risk on losing since it will be interpreted by the media as a defeat for the Administration--losing a Republican seat.

The Rivers seat did not matter nearly as much because that was a Democrat seat and our man had an uphill battle.

What I am saying is I think the President has an interest here, and there is a need for money right away.
April 15, 1971

To: H. R. Haldeman
From: Hugh Sloan
Subject: Special Election in South Carolina -- April 27

Harry Dent approached me today concerning the special Congressional election for Mendel Rivers' seat in South Carolina. In Harry's view, our candidate, Dr. Jim Edwards, is the best candidate in a three-way race and has a chance of winning. Jack Calkins, Executive Director of the Congressional Campaign Committee, has spent the past week in South Carolina and has indicated to Dent that he feels there is a real possibility here. A black militant is the third candidate and is expected to draw votes away from the Democratic candidate.

The problem, of course, is one of money and exposure. Dent apparently is working on trying to arrange an appearance by Governor Reagan, as this is very conservative territory but, in addition, feels that it is mandatory that the candidate have access to additional television time in the home stretch. In spite of support from the Congressional Campaign Committee and other outside sources, the campaign is in debt. Harry feels that even if we are unable to provide any money at this time a commitment now would enable the candidate to contract for T.V. time. He recommends $15,000 but thinks any amount will be helpful, i.e., $5,000 or $10,000.

This obviously raises some questions, which are:

1) Are we to use any of "our" funds for candidate support other than the President?
2) If "yes", should we make a commitment in this case?
3) $5,000  $10,000  $15,000

Please advise at your earliest convenience as time will be of the essence if we decide to pledge any support.

1972 Candidates Off and Collecting

BY RICHARD BLEWS

Senator George S. McGovern flew into New York from Los Angeles last week and announced that he will campaign for the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1972—despite a multimillion-dollar effort by President Nixon and his allies to stifle the up-and-coming former South Dakota senator. In a series of speeches in New York and New Jersey, Senator McGovern unveiled a $1-million plan to raise money for his campaign.

Senator McGovern's fund-raising effort was the latest move in what is turning into a multimillion-dollar war among Democrats for the Presidential nomination. Senator Eugene McCarthy's successful efforts to collect $1 million for his campaign last fall are likely to be matched or exceeded by the new Senate candidate's efforts.

Most of the millions to be raised by the candidates will be in the form of small contributions rather than the large donations traditional in Presidential campaigns. The candidates will rely heavily on the mail to solicit contributions and will hold large fundraising events in major cities.

The candidates will also have to arrange for the use of television and radio time. Senator McGovern, for example, has already signed a television contract with a Los Angeles station.

Senator McGovern's campaign is expected to be well-organized and well-financed. He is already in the process of setting up a national headquarters in Washington, D.C., and has hired a number of experienced political consultants to help him.

The candidates are part of the mainstream of the Democratic Party and are likely to have the support of the party establishment. However, the campaign will be a fierce one, with each candidate fighting to win the nomination and the presidency.

The candidates are:

- Senator George S. McGovern (D-South Dakota)
- Senator Eugene McCarthy (D-Minnesota)
- Vice President Hubert Humphrey (D-Minnesota)
- Senator Edward W. Brooke (D-Massachusetts)
- Governor George Wallace (D-Alabama)
- Governor John F. Kennedy (D-Massachusetts)
- Governor John B. Connally (D-Texas)
- Governor Edmund G. Brown (D-California)

The candidates will face stiff competition from the Republicans, who are expected to field a strong Presidential candidate in 1972. The candidates will have to work hard to win the nomination and the presidency, and the campaign will be a long and arduous one.

AMBASSADOR

Confirmed from First Page.

S. N. Greeless cordially but didn't receive much encouragement.

"So I got on a plane and went to Miami Beach and they were real nice to me. Through it all, I was impressed by how much they put up with me considering all the work they had to do," he continued.

Convention Excitement

He had a little taste of convention excitement, though. He was given a job of being a receptionist on the 16th floor of a hotel, allowed to answer the phone for Ethel M. Nixon, and was given two tickets to convention sessions.

After spending $1,100 following the Nixon campaign, Divel finally gave up hope of joining the staff and returned to San Diego where he was on hand when the Nixon entourage arrived after the convention.

Learning that Mr. Nixon might establish a summer White House in California, he thought San Clemente would be just the place.

When he got home to San Clemente, he started looking around. A couple of places looked good, but then he thought of the Cox estate.

For while it was dinner table talk at home with his parents, Don and Lois Divel, and his two sisters and brother, but one day he decided he had better start working on it.

"I went down to City Hall and took pictures of San Clemente maps on the wall of the office of City Manager Kenneth Corrr. Then I went to the city planner's office and took more photos."

"Later I went to see Police Chief Clifford Murphy who is a fine man who had some aerial photos of San Clemente. He told me some odds of the Cotton estate bluing up the next day.

"I put together a three-page letter explaining why San Clemente would be a good location for the President."

Divel mailed a package with the letter and photos to Art Godfrey, special Secret Service agent in charge of presidential security.

He explained that Chief Murray had told him that Godfrey was impressed with San Clemente as a security base for President Johnson's daughter, Lynda Bird, and her husband, Charles Concannon, who visited the city several years earlier.

Godfrey passed the material on to Ethel M. Nixon who took the letter and photos to the President.

Ethel M. Nixon confirms that Divel sent some excellent photos of the Cotton estate, which were shown to President Nixon.

"The President was impressed by the aerials," a white house spokesman said.

Divel has lived all his life in San Clemente, where his grandfather started a mortuary business many years ago. Although his father has sold the business, the family has extensive real estate interests in the city and plans to continue utilizing them.

He will also plan to attend either Cal State Fullerton or George Washington University next year to continue his studies in the field of business.

At present he is completing his second year at Santa Ana College.

Now that the summer White House in San Clemente is a reality, Fred Divel has one great ambition left.

He wants an invitation to be a guest—not a tourist—at the White House.

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
November 20, 1970

MEMORANDUM FOR: H. R. HALDEMAN
FROM: JOHN R. BROWN III
SUBJECT: RNC Budget Support

Attached at Tab A is a report on the status of RNC Budget Support as of the end of October. On reviewing this you should be aware of the following:

1. The October expense for the President's Account does not include the cost of Air Force One (expected to be about $50,000) or many of the advancement expenses. These will be reflected in November's figures.

2. The October figure for Herb Klein's account contains about $130,000 in TV and advertising expenses. Next months expenses should reflect an additional $200,000 in TV expense.

3. The RNC still has approximately $60,000 in receivables due from the local organizations in payment for the Vice President's expenses. Bob Hitt is quite optimistic about collecting this money.

I met with Bob Hitt and Ray Underwood today to discuss these figures. Bob Hitt sees no problem with them absorbing the TV and Air Force One expenses in November as well as our other normal operating expenses for the rest of the year.

Once Magruder gets back I am going to arrange a meeting with him, Chapin, a representative from the Vice President's office, Dent and Chotiner to come up with a recommended budget for the coming calendar year. We will submit our recommendations for your approval sometime in early December so that I can get the information to Hitt for a budget meeting they are having around the 15th.

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. COLSON
FROM: GORDON STRACHAN
SUBJECT: CARL SHIPLEY

December 8, 1970

Pursuant to your request, I talked with Mr. Shipley on Wednesday, December 2nd. After my initial request that he calm Mark Austad, Shipley charged into a long monologue on the following subjects:

1. Whether the ad program was guided by someone higher than you or whether it was merely a "Colson lark;"

2. Why Mrs. Marriott, who denounced the ads, should not have been selected to represent the President in Mexico with AFO;

3. Whether invitations to State Dinners are given to supporters (why hasn't Shipley received an invitation);

4. Why should Jimmy Allison be permitted to take the high road in the dispute; he should have been programmed to attack the Democrats for the same tactics;

5. Whether Klein knew of the ad campaign.

Shipley is very unhappy - he concluded with "enemies or non-supporters receive better treatment than friends."

The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Chuck:

The following are names of persons who have accepted in terms of members of the proposed Committee For a Responsible Congress which will have its account in the Security Bank, National Press Building, Washington, D. C., unless you otherwise instruct:

Carl L. Shipley—Treasurer
Mark Evans—Vice President of Metro Media (WTGG)
Charles H. Rhyne—Shoreham West
Mrs. J.W. Marriott—Republican National Committeewoman for the District of Columbia
Mrs. Jouett House—Chairwoman of Kennedy Center Advisory Committee
Paul Aiken—Former Democratic Vice Chairman

Do you think we need more names? Democrats are tough to get.

Sincerely,

Carl L. Shipley
MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. COLSON

We have been trying for well over a month now to try to get assembled a useable selection of quotes from the principal potential candidates for 1972 - Humphrey, Muskie, Kennedy, McGovern, Mondale - and from the Senators we are trying to defeat in the key states - you know who that list is. So far, this effort has labored mightily and hasn't even given birth to a mouse yet. We have pages and pages of trivia - nothing organized - stuff coming from all different sources, nobody sorting it out, nobody determining what is useable and what isn't, nobody looking with a cold, clear eye at evaluating the stuff. Unfortunately, the elections of this year are now only a few weeks away, and there is hardly enough time left to get what we have used, let alone to get more and get it used, but somehow this has got to be done.

Having failed in this venture otherwise, I am now asking you to take overall control of it and get it done. Get it done this coming week and have the whole thing in useable form and a report on how it is being used, when we return on Monday the 5th. I will send over to you the rather nondescript pile of junk we've got up to now and hope that you can make some sense out of it and that you can force the National Committee and our other sources to get off their tails and get going on this thing so that we can, for once, do something effective and in time.

The point here, as I've said repeatedly before, is to get those quotes, going back as far as is necessary, from each of these individuals on which we can hang the guy. We should specifically zero in on the areas of permissiveness, law and order, students, the moratoriums, Black Panthers, and all the other so-called social issues that Scammon and Wattenberg have pointed out so clearly to us are the key issues of our time.
In order to do this effectively, please try to get away from the temptation to simply stack up paper, which is what we have been doing up to now, and get down to a critical evaluation of the four or five really damaging quotes from each of the key people. Then get them out to our candidates and get them using them.

The one where we apparently are least effective, all is McGregor in Minnesota, who has the most material to work with than anyone out of the HHH handbook. Apparently we've got to guide him on those key quotes that are most damaging to Hubert, and somehow persuade him to start using them. I know you are aware of the potency of the issue here, and perhaps you can get this thing moving into some effective channels.

Our need is not for reports, it is for results. Then we can do the reports sometime in later November.

Every candidate we have who is running against someone who supported any one of the moratoriums should be consistently blasting his opponent on the fact that he supported the moratorium. We've simply got to put the heat on these people. We're letting Kennedy, Humphrey and the rest get the issue back on to their side as they move away from their old positions. We've got to ignore their present position and slam them for their previous position. We should not hit them on the basis of trying to switch, because that doesn't do us any good. We should hit them on the basis of charging them with what they used to say. Keep slamming the guy on where does he stand regarding the students - that one, of course, is the principal issue of them all, and almost all of them were, at some point, on the wrong side of it. We should keep reminding the voters of that.

If we get the right phrase we can kill each one of these guys with one phrase in the area of law and order, permissiveness, or whatever, as well as on students.
I am sorry to pile this on top of all the other things you're supposed to be tending to this week, but it is vitally important that it get done and so far, it hasn't been. It is absolutely imperative not to let this ball drop at this critical point.

Nofziger, Huston and Buchanan should be able to be of great help to you in this, and Bud Krogh also can help with background, at least.

Another area that hasn't been explored at all, apparently, is getting editorial writers to take on the Kennedy's, Muskie's, etc., from their switch from their total permissiveness a few months ago, to total law and order men now, as a result of having read the Scammon book. If we aren't careful we are going to let them get away with this.

Right on!

H. R. Haldeman

Mr. Buchanan

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. COLSON

Further to the points covered in earlier memos.

It is imperative that our candidates call upon their opponent to repudiate what some of the leaders of the RadicLib have said - not just what the opponent, himself, has said. In other words, Brock should call on Gore to repudiate specific statements made by McGovern, Hubert or Teddy.

We have to stop the run for the Center from the Left. You may have noticed that Teddy Kennedy now has bumper stickers saying, Stand Up for Your Local Police.

In doing this, it is imperative not to give the opponent credit for changing his mind, but just to keep charging him for what he said. Our candidate should use the line that "He sincerely believes what he said - this is where his heart is." We should not be deflected by their changes - we've got to stay with their old stuff and hang them on it.

Another point that can be effectively made is their votes have always reflected their views, and the question is "not what they say, but how they vote that counts". Then itemize both what they say and how they voted.

Another important issue that should be made is Cambodia. Hang all those who opposed Cambodia, and ask if they still think it was so bad. It is clear that the public, by a wide margin, supports Cambodia now.

MEMORANDUM FOR: LARRY HIGBY
FROM: CHARLES W. COLSON

I think it is time for Bob to send another memo to members of the staff reminding them of his earlier instructions that all fund-raising efforts be coordinated with me first. Mulcahy reports that he is receiving a lot of calls from people in the White House asking for all sorts of contributions.

This is a very dangerous practice as I am sure you know. What is equally important, Mulcahy is a little irritated and would prefer to deal with one person so that he knows the requests are bona fide and cleared.

I don't want to get into the specifics. I think another memo like the one Bob sent six months ago might get things back into control.
