THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 28, 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR:

KEN KHACHIGIAN

FROM:

Pat Buchanan

This is a good indictment of the fellow, which might have appeal across a broad spectrum -- all across from peace kids to conservatives. But it looks like the kind of personal assault that most politicians are unwilling to give. What conservative can we get to deliver this -- then have Monday excerpt it; and perhaps Human Events run it in full. Then get reprints of it out to campus newspapers and the like. Maybe a Congressman whom we know to be conservative -- but whom others will read as simply Congressman X.

MEMORANDUM FOR: CHUCK COLSON

FROM: KEN KHACHIGIAN

SUBJECT: HUMPHREY

I gather from news stories that Yorty did not make use of the Humphrey indictment on Vietnam we prepared. I hate to see that one go to waste, and I was thinking of two alternatives.

First, MONDAY will probably be ready to do another piece on Humphrey soon, and they could easily use the one we prepared. With an accompanying press release I think it would make substantial news.

Second, we could ask a Congressman to deliver it, some conservative who isn't tied by Senatorial courtesy. While in itself it wouldn't make a whole lot of news, we could probably get Human Events to reprint excerpts from the address, and then have the Young Republican press service send the speech out to college newspapers as well.
