MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Billy Graham called, said he had been with President Johnson during the weekend at the ranch. Walter Cronkite was also there for one day. He believes that Mr. Johnson now has recovered from leaving office and made the adjustment necessary so he takes the attitude that he is above politics, much as was General Eisenhower. Billy said that in a number of conversations Mr. Johnson expressed himself in support of you and took pride in mentioning the fact that he had helped get a few Democratic votes on the surtax.

Dr. Graham feels that Mr. Johnson now is becoming more conservative again.

During the conversation, Dr. Graham got the impression that the former President would like very much to be invited to Cape Kennedy to see the blast-off. As you know he will be doing a commentary on the moon shot on CBS on July 20. I would not be particularly in favor of such an invitation except for the fact that he will be on the air anyway. This might mean more favorable comment by Mr. Johnson and would avoid any indication that he had been slighted.

MEMORANDUM

TO THE PRESIDENT

In connection with your letter to Harold Bell, the former Burning Tree caddy, as you know, we leaked a copy of the correspondence to the Star, which responded by running it on page 1 of all its editions.

I am sending copies of the correspondence and pictures to Black press and to twenty friendly sports columnists, who may want to use excerpts as to what a caddy can do. I also gave an item about this in advance to Irv Kupciner in Chicago.
