President Richard Nixon
President Richard Nixon
White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

I believe you are one of the greatest Presidents in our history. Never before has one man under taken so much with so little help and so many against him.

It is said you will be a one time President. I do not believe the people of this country can be stupid enough to let this happen. I do not necessarily agree with everything you do, but feel that I can close my eyes at night and know you are making the right decisions.

I would like the opportunity of helping you in any way possible during the coming election. I sincerely and honestly feel I can be of help to you and our country. You probably receive many letters such as this. However, I know that I can be of help; as I have been involved with numerous campaigns here in the New Orleans area. It would be unethical for me to reveal who the candidates were as one of the principles of my business is confidentially. Enclosed is my business brochure which explains the services I offer. Please do not misunderstand, I am not soliciting business but rather offering my services to you as a team member on your campaign committee.

Of course I realize an interview with you personally is out of the question. However, perhaps one of your campaign managers could contact me to discuss what service I can be to your campaign.

Sincerely,

Robert Namer
