Mrs. Joanne Gordon
Room 187, EOB
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mrs. Gordon:

When you called me the other day to ask for names of labor leaders who supported Republican candidates in Oklahoma, I'm afraid I was a bit short with you. Labor leaders are very strong against the Republican Party and probably always will be. We are starting to gain among the rank and file but not at the top and I see no need to wine and dine them.

We have a real problem here in Oklahoma with a group of men who have always strongly supported the Republicans. This is the oilmen. They are very upset with President Nixon, and I don't blame them. Our own Senator Henry Bellmon spoke out against the President in this matter. This group needs to be wined and dined, and listened to, by the President if we are to hope for anywhere close to the financial and personal support success we enjoyed in 1968.

For this reason I am enclosing a list of oilmen in Oklahoma who have been active as oilmen and active as contributors and/or workers for the Republican Party. I hope the President will see fit to invite these men to the White House or arrange a meeting here in Oklahoma to talk to them and let them talk to him.

We need something like this soon.

Sincerely,

C.E.W.

Clarence E. Warner
Republican State Chairman
