Dear Rose Mary:

As usual the President did a magnificent job at the Convention. We are all holding fast to the hope that we can re-elect him in November. The greatest danger to our cause can come from complacency, against which we must constantly be alert and on guard.

For some strange reason it has been impossible for me to get a card through to him, and I say very much aware of the demands made upon his time. But he has always been a loyal man and I'm sure he is not aware of this. But I am also pretty sure that some member of the palace guard has done this thing to me.

I am attaching a clipping from the Los Angeles Times which is somewhat ironic to me.

You see my number was up with the networks and the motion picture studios way back in 1952 when I had the effrontery to campaign for Senator Nixon. It was not too long after that that I became aware of what was going on. I think it was about 1954 that a new executive at 20th Century Fox told his assistant that I was never to be hired for narration at that studio. This represented quite a loss to me in a year's time. I could live okay without it but it still was quite costly to me.

Unfortunately I did not have enough time to accumulate enough funds, as Sammy Davis and Frank Sinatra did, to give me the financial independence which they have.

But I wonder if the President has ever been aware of this problem I created which I created for myself so long ago. It would be interesting to know.

My very best regards to you, as ever.
