Bob Abplanalp to rmw

"I want to tell you a little story that might be worth repeating.

"A man I have known in Chicago for years - George Bar - Jewish liberal - 15 or 18 years ago he and I were relatively close friends but because of some business disputes we broke up. I wanted to knock his brains out.

"This morning I had a call from him - he said you will never guess why I am calling you - he said I am calling you because I know you are involved and I want to make a contribution for the re-election of the President."

"I did not want to ask him any questions because I thought he might clam up -- but told him to send a check made out for the ~~Committee~~ Committee for the Re-election of the President and send it to you."

"Business is good -- everything looks great."
