EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
LONDON

September 25, 1972

Dear Rose Mary:

You will recall that I sent you a copy of my note to Jack Knight, together with a tear sheet; accordingly, I am enclosing herewith an acknowledgement appertaining thereto.

*Put in RN's
Reading File*

Incidentally, when he refers to my returning to the United States within a month or so, I do expect to be back the latter part of October and shall remain until about the 10th of November, which should provide me an opportunity for seeing him. Frankly I want to reveiw with Knight his organization's direction of the Philadelphia newspapers.

I am also enclosing a column on Clement Stone that may not have come to your attention.

Cordially,

Walter Annenberg
Ambassador

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

While this note will not be typed up until I get back to the office, I am trying to catch up on my correspondence during our flight from New York to California. Last night the President addressed the New York Victory '72 Dinner (which was carried on closed circuit television to 26 other dinners) and now tonight he will address the one in Los Angeles -- with a stop in San Francisco for their fund-raising luncheon on the way!

I couldn't agree more with your comments concerning our problem wife and wish there were some way to effectively carry out your suggestion. I know John is doing his very best!

With warm personal regards to you and Lee,

Sincerely,

Rose Mary Woods
Secretary to the President

The Honorable Walter H. Annenberg
American Ambassador
London

WALTER H. ANNENBERG

September 15, 1972

Dear Rose Mary:

I enclose clippings that underscore the fear I indicated in my last letter to you on the subject of Martha Mitchell. Publicity leukemia is incurable, and this poor soul is capable of trying to implicate the President in plotting against her, so as to produce sensational media coverage, and this can occur any time up to the date of election.

While I respect John Mitchell's affection for his wife, I think he has a duty to the President to effectively muzzle her.

Cordially,

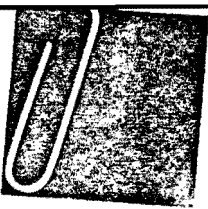

---

Walter Annenberg
Ambassador

MEMORANDUM

TO: Bob Haldeman
FROM: Rose Mary Woods

Rose Mary Woods

Ambassador Walter Annenberg called to say how thrilled he is - what an immense personal tribute to the President that vote was-- a magnificent personal triumph.

He said he is going back to London on Friday morning. Wanted to ask a favor: If it is at all possible he would like to fly down to Florida tomorrow and shake his hand -- he does not want to visit with him -- just shake hands -- says this is such a highly emotional triumph, etc.

I told him I did not know what the schedule was -- but I knew his family were going with them and that David had only the one day to be with them -- but that you would know what else might be scheduled,

Would you please have someone call and let the Ambassador know -- or maybe if you have the time it might be a good idea if you could call personally.

Home Number (Philadelphia ) Code 215 473-7711
(if not there -- office Code 215 688-7400

THANKS.

(Or if you want me to call - let me know).

I was told Flanigan was to call Annenberg to turn this down.
