Margaret Brock to rmw

"It looks great. I think they are working hard. I called in and I talked with Lyn Nofsiger at length. He has it all figured out for California. He thinks we will do better in Northern California than normally. ~~He gave a report at the State Central~~ rmw said - Yes but that is not because of anything he and Reagan have done but because David Packard has worked like a dog up there.

Margaret said -- Yes that is right - he gave a report at the State Central Committee in the afternoon and he is really working hard.

Then Lyn said Fresno looks better than it has before.

Orange County and San Diego are terrific. They are so over on their margin.

Riverside and San Bernardino are ok.

Los Angeles - we are concerned about that but think they are holding their own.

They have 61 Nixon Headquarters in Los Angeles.

Jim Welbourn is Banowski's assistant. What they see through - as you talk with people -- they talk about the apathy and the complacency.

The only threat is because the President is so far out in front on the polls. ~~Many of the leaders are~~ The more the leaders talk about that maybe the better --

Down at the State Central Committee on September 30th Governor Reagan ~~is for~~ in his talk gave a magnificent talk for the President and his Administration. ~~He had never heard the~~ I had never heard the President's foreign policy expressed so ~~well~~ -- well -- as to why he went to China/ Russia, etc.

Then in the afternoon Banowsky threw the scare into them. He said I don't think they are scared enough. I don;t think our people are scared enough.

California -- he has to carry California.

RmW told Margaret to bug them about getting the volunteers -- about asking some of the people ~~ix~~ who have worked in previous campaigns to show them how -- what to do with the volunteers -- and to get the old ones back in -- they know what to do and want to help.

She promised to do that -- and was going to talk with Earl Adams about it that afternoon as well and see what he might suggest as she was going to his office on business anyway.
